

Record of the Twenty-two Old Country Residents.

---

L. OGDEN, Captain, Charterhouse School and Trinity College, Cambridge. A dangerous bat; hits freely all round; is a capital bowler, with great spin, and as Captain is unsurpassed.

G. BEHAN, Cheltenham College, late Captain of Her Majesty's 19th Regiment. Is one of our best bats; has a very fine free style; makes runs very fast.

F. J. GOSLING, Brighton. A fine bat, with good style, and a splendid field; change bowler.

F. W. ARMSTRONG, Uppingham School. A reliable bat and quick run getter, possessing good defence and great hitting power; is an excellent wicket keeper.

W. S. JACKSON, Rugby School. A first-rate bat and hard hitter.

W. TOWNSEND, Birkenhead Cricket Club. A very good pains-taking bat; can always be depended on for runs.

J. N. KIRCHHOFFER, Marlborough College. A thoroughly reliable and scientific bat, with strong defence and hits very hard; is a good judge of the game.

H. BROCK, Repton School. A good bat, sometimes getting into the centuries, and is also a good slow bowler and fine point.

G. SIMPSON, plays for Galt. Is an excellent fast bowler and fair bat.

G. TROUSDALE, plays for Whitby. Is a capital bat, making runs very fast.

W. E. BAILLIE, Edinburgh. A good fast bowler, with low delivery, and stylish bat.

R. ADAMS, Oxford. A stylish bat, with good wrist play; as a field cannot be surpassed.

C. P. FISHER, plays for Port Hope. A destructive fast bowler; a brilliant bat, and good field anywhere.

HOLLAND, plays for Cobourg.

W. R. BAKER, plays for Ottawa. Fair bowler; an energetic and improving cricketer.

C. B. BRODIE, plays for Ottawa. At times a very destructive bowler; a capital field and good bat.

HON. C. HARBORD, A. D. C. to the Marquis of Lorne. Good stiff bat and fair field; can bowl.

S. E. HARDINGE, Listowel. Good bowler and pretty bat.

N. P. TOD, Guelph. Fair bat and first-class field.

REV. T. D. PHILLIPS, Ottawa. One of the best bats in the Dominion; can make runs against any kind of bowling.

F. L. BLAKE, Beaconsfield, Bucks. An improving bat, with fine forward drive and good hit to leg; bowls fast round arm, and is a good change.

Twenty-second man yet to be selected.
