Do not miss the beautiful sail up Muskoka Lake to Beaumaris, and Indian River to Port Carling, thence to Lake Rousseau and Lake Joseph. Handsome coaches, buffet and cafe cars. OFFICER BADLY BEATEN BY THUGS IN PAWNSHOP

Three Men Were Trying to Dispose of Stolen Jewelry-Caught After a Hard Chase.

Three thugs badly wanted in the United States are in custody and Detective William Wallace of the headquarters' staff is at his home, 89 Borden-street, in a seriously injured condition, as a result of a severe beating

They are William J. Farrell, aged 21 years, publist, on probation for assault in Massachusetts; his brother, George J. Farrell, aged 18 years, and Victor Osborne, aged 20 years.

Detective Wallace has his cheekbones broken and his face badly cut up as the result of a plucky fight of 15 minutes, when he attempted, single-handed, to arrest two of them in a York-street pawnshop, where they were attempting to dispose of the booty from two burglaries committed by them a few weeks ago in Cambridge, Mass.
Wallace entered S. Helpert's pawnhere to-day, one of which we report. shop at 167 York-street at noon Sat-urday. There he found two men trying to dispose of a quantity of rings, pins and other jewelry. He questioned them as to how they had come by such stuff and was told to mind his own business. The men told him that he led with they glory" (Revelation iv. could not arrest them without a warrant, whereupon he laid his hand upon one of them, a stocky young man with sandy hair and complexion.

These two set upon the detective, who was holding the other man down. They used not only their hands, but also their feet, kicking him about the head, face and ribs. Wallace turned to meet the addition of forces, but was soon beaten into insensibility.

The trio then fied and made their way north to Adelaide-street, followed by Helpert. Then they came upon Policeman Macdonald 293).
