

WEST KENT FARMERS
DO NOT WANT THE PACT

Conservative Candidate Making
Liberal Strongholds.

CHATHAM, Ont., Sept. 13.—(Special.)—Right in the heart of the largest Liberal stronghold of West Kent, Ward Stanworth, the local Liberal Conservative candidate, and Dr. Coleridge of Intercol held one of the most successful Conservative meetings of the local campaign last evening. Gullies has been generally looked upon with fear and trembling by the Conservative workers, but last night's meeting in this little village was a surprise and a revelation. The hall was packed to the doors and the large majority of the people were staunch Liberals. The attention given both speakers was earnest and the frequent applause showed that the message carried right to the hearts of the listeners. At the conclusion of the meeting hundreds of the farmers remained to personally offer their support to Mr. Stanworth. It was an unusual thing for Gullies, but it was merely a repetition of the reception everywhere being tendered the Conservative candidate by the farmers of both political parties.

Dr. Coleridge gave an eloquent address, appealing especially to the Liberals to decide the question of reciprocity apart from party ties. He dealt especially with the favored nations clause, the pulpwood situation and the sacrifices of the Canadian home market.

Mr. Stanworth's campaign is progressing favorably. There is only a majority of 52 to overcome, and the City of Chatham will do more than that. Besides this, reports show that the farmers of Kent of both parties are convinced of the evils of the pact and will give a good substantial majority against it. This will make Mr. Stanworth's majority up in the hundreds. The Conservatives are confident of victory unless the Liberal party depart from their agreement to run a clean election. Mr. Stanworth's election is conceded and assured.

SIR ANDREW FRASER COMING

Laymen's Missionary Executive Planning
November's Big Conventions.

To plan for the coming of Sir Andrew Fraser, the setting of the date for the anniversary of the Laymen's Missionary Movement, always held in November, and to arrange mission societies for fall, the Toronto executive committee of the Laymen's Missionary movement will meet this afternoon.

Toronto is the only large city in Canada, which will have no convention this fall in connection with the work. The Montreal committee met yesterday, and in addition to Sir Andrew Fraser and Robert Speer, the committee has secured the services of Silas McBea, editor of The Churchman, New York; Dr. Johnston Ross of the Presbyterian College, Montreal, and two or three other strong men not on other programs.

A GIDDY WHIRLWIND.

CHATHAM, Ont., Sept. 13.—(Special.)—A peculiar freak on Monday night's storm is reported from Chatham Township. On James Forsyth's place, on the ninth concession, a whirlwind tore a veritable hole in a new barn, blowing away the roof and hurled it several yards away. The path of the hurricane described a small semi-circle, tearing gaps of fences and hit the Forsyth's stable, part of which it wrecked. It then turned another half circle in an opposite direction and blew down the wind mill. No further damage in any part of the township is reported, and the whirlwind at Forsyth's seemed to merely trace a complete "S" and then cease operations.

INGRAM—LINTON.

A very pretty wedding took place on Tuesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Linton, 52 Ann-street, when the marriage of their eldest daughter, Beatrice Glanetta, to Mr. William G. Ingram was solemnized. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. R. J. Treleven, in the drawing room, which was beautifully decorated with ferns, palms, pink and white asters. The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a beautiful white silk, with over-dress of white silk, with satin folds and pearl trimmings, regulation veil with a mount of lilies and feathers. She carried a shower bouquet of bridal roses and showers of lily of the valley.

WILL ATTEND HOSPITAL CONVENTION.

Dr. Hastings, M. H. O., and A. M. McMurch have been delegated by the local board of health to attend the meetings of the American Hospital Association, to be held at New York, from Sept. 19 to 22.

The Toronto deputation are attending chiefly for the sake of the discussion on hospital buildings and management, which are at present of more than usual interest, seeing that a new General Hospital is being erected in this city and that a new Isolation Hospital is also to be established here.

J. D. Allan Says Hostile Sentiment is Growing by Leaps and Bounds.

"If the election was postponed for a month the Liberal party would not have a foot to stand on," said J. D. Allan, vice-president of the A. A. Allan Company, and one of the eighteen Toronto Liberals who publicly declared themselves adverse to the reciprocity pact. Mr. Allan said his trip was a most enjoyable one and that he found the men in his home County of Norfolk strongly against the measure.

"The people are infinitely more opposed to the pact now than when it was made known to the public and there are infinitely more against such a drastic measure now than they were a month ago. The people I have been touching during the last few days were practically all Liberals, but hardly one of them will vote for their party on the 21st."

"I hold exactly the same views now as when I first took a stand against the measure. The only difference is that I am more convinced now than then, if that is possible."

Mr. Allan went on to say that the stand taken by the eighteen business men and material effect, and that it had done much towards defeating the pact.

"I cannot see one place where we will gain by such a measure," went on Mr. Allan. "I can see nothing but loss in it for the Canadians and a fast pace for the man on the other side of the border. And apart from the Americans invading our market, there are other favored nations. The only logical outcome of a broken prosperity for fair Canada."

DR. SHEARD RESIGNS CHAIR

Had Been Professor of Preventive
Medicine at University for 29 Years.

Dr. Charles Sheard has resigned from the Medical Faculty of the University as professor of preventive medicine. The resignation was sent in six weeks ago, but was not announced publicly at the time. Owing to the fact that President Falconer has just returned from his holidays no consideration has yet been given as to Dr. Sheard's successor.

"It was a shock to us when the resignation came," said President Falconer last night. "We haven't taken any action on the matter as yet. The president stated that the possibility of the chair of preventive medicine not being continued as a separate department was remote, but nothing could be stated with definiteness until the matter was thoroughly discussed."

Dr. Sheard has been a lecturer at the university since 1882, and these six weeks ago, but was not announced publicly at the time. Owing to the fact that President Falconer has just returned from his holidays no consideration has yet been given as to Dr. Sheard's successor.

HEALTH GOOD IN SCHOOLS.

The reports in the hands of the school medical inspectors indicate better health among the children generally, and a decrease in the number of contagious diseases. Some few pupils have left school sick, and the inspector will have a report for the board on these cases soon.

Two Pullman cars left on the G.T.R. train, which runs between Detroit and Chicago. A broken rail between Eastwood and Ingersoll caused the trouble, but no accident or serious damage resulted.

WIVES COMING FOR ALL

COL. LAMB AND TO CUPID

Salvation Army Expects to Cut Down Britain's Surplus of 1,300,000 Women.

About sixty domestic servants, brought here by the Salvation Army, met yesterday afternoon on the lawn of Rosedale Hall to tender a reception to Colonel D. C. Lamb of London, Eng., the Army's chief emigration officer.

"The Moses of Canadian domesticity," was the way a brother officer appropriately described the work of Col. Lamb, who has during his tenure of office brought out and kept track of 1200 domestics of a marriageable age and certified character.

The colonel explained that the old country had at the present time about 1,300,000 women in excess of the requirements of the country, and that the Salvation Army was working to equalize this, and this year they will bring out 1200 domestics of a marriageable age and certified character.

That is the kind of reciprocity that appeals to me," said Col. Lamb. "These girls would have to work for a mere pittance in the old country, where their condition is bettered, and their wages are more than doubled."

He explained that the Army's problem was not so much to benefit the emigrants materially, the moral side of the question was the most important. Conditions in the old land were such as to deprive many of these young women of their most sacred right; the privilege of becoming wives and mothers.

In his address to the gathering Col. Lamb told them not to marry the first young man who came along. There were lots of young men here, and the right one was sure to appear sooner or later.

Refreshments were served on the lawn and a Salvation Army band provided music. Commissioner Rees and Col. Mapp gave short addresses and the party broke up about 5.30 p.m.

EVERY LITTLE MOVEMENT

Of Troops Noted by French Army
Aviators at Manoeuvres.

BEAUFORT, France, Sept. 13.—The autumn manoeuvres of the French army were brought to a close today with the burning of much gunpowder in an early morning battle which raised the hypothesis of invasion of Belgium. Premier Caillaux, the minister of war, M. Messimy, and other distinguished persons witnessed the spectacle from an elevation overlooking the field of operations.

It was not figure in the battle, as they had been driven from the sky by the big balloons.

The aviators were presented to the premier. The aviator by these men appears to have been remarkable from heights varying from 1000 to 4000 feet, in cloudless atmosphere,
