SEPARATION OF SEXES

Trustee Kent's Motion That Segregation Apply to Higher Forms is Discussed and Rejected.

Much of the time of the board of education was last night taken up with a discussion as to the desirability of introducing a separation of the sexes in the higher forms of the public schools. Introduced by Trustee Kent as a notice of motion it read thus: inspector and principals of the public schools to so arrange the third and senior classes in the schools that at the beginning of the school year the Between Toronto and Liverpool.

Mr. S. J. Sharp, western passenger agent for the C.P.R. Atlantic steamers, has just advised us that their company, commencing with June sailing of the "Empress of Britain," nave arranged to have passengers' baggage checked from residence to Liverpool docks. This is the first instance of such arrangements being made from Ontario points, and will be highly appreciated by the traveling public, as it will relieve them of an immeasurable amount of care and attention to baggage.
