Live Stock Market

Trading on the Union Stock Yards Exchange took on a little livelier air yesterday, and prices for practically all classes held good and steady with Monday's prices.

In a few cases where there have been a few loads of left-overs there was a noticeable decline in the price for big rough steers from 25c to 40c per cwt., but this did not correctly indicate the general tone of the market, which was pretty steady.

Several of the commission houses, who had been left with odd loads of left-over cattle, cleaned these, together with the fresh stuff, all up. The run yesterday was a moderately heavy one for a Tuesday, with 61 cattle, 112 calves, 200 hogs, and 442 sheep and lambs.

Stockers and feeders were in fair demand, especially for the good breedy type, which, after all, are never long without a market. There has been a heavy run of breeders and stockers this fall, and while there have been scores of cars of good thrifty, breedy young cattle passed thru, similarly a lot of very common to inferior stock.

Sheep and Lambs.

There has been a fairly good run of sheep and lambs during the last two days. From 15½c to 16c was the run for lambs. On Monday and with a light run on Tuesday they fell off 50c a cwt. and sold at from 15c to 15½c.

Light sheep sold at 12c to 14c, and heavy fat sheep and ewes from 9½c to 11c.

Calves.

There was a light run of calves with all grades easier. Best veal calves sold yesterday at from 14½c to 15c; medium calves, 11c to 13c; common calves, 7c to 9c; heavy calves, 6½c to 8½c, and grassers, 6c to 7½c.

Hogs.

The hog market is very unsettled and hard to size up, out the bulk of the offerings yesterday sold around $16.50, fed and watered. There was a light run, and the market seemed to hold steady at the price indicated, tho they did not all sell at the figure indicated.

MINING STOCKS REMAIN STEADY

Sharp Advance in Silver Tends to Offset Effect of Outside Markets.

Silver's advance of six cents per ounce would undoubtedly have had a decidedly stimulating effect on Cobalt stocks yesterday had it not taken place at a time when security markets in general were in a state of semi-panic. Under the circumstances, commendable steadiness was shown by the majority of the issues listed on the Standard Exchange, declines being kept well within bounds, while in some cases advances were made.

Dome, always directly responsive to weakness in New York, sold again at $7.65, the minimum price reached the previous day, and failed to rally. Hollinger, after opening at 5.00, went off to 4.90 on dealings of nearly 800 shares. McIntyre appeared to be the target for an organized attack. New York and Montreal were reported to be sellers, and the price broke to 1.35, only three points above the low for the year. Newray, at 45, showed a loss of two points. Thompson-Krist forfeited practically all its recent gain, going back to 8½, a loss of 3½ points.

Silver Group Firm.

The silver group was relatively firm as a result of silver's higher quotation. It was stated yesterday afternoon that one of the big mining companies was privately offered three cents above the official price for silver, but declined to accept, the management holding the opinion that the upturn under way may bring the price of the white metal back to the dollar mark.

Adanac was one point up, at 15. Crown Reserve, presumably as an aftermath of the announcement of the Newray deal, was active and strong, the closing price of 25 recording, an advance of two points. Timiskaming, at 28½, was half a point up, while Coniagas sold at 3.05, as against Monday's close of 3.00.

GOLD FLOW TO CANADA LIKELY TO BE RENEWED

Conferences Will, it is Believed, Result in Removal of Embargo.

Bradstreet's report says: "Considerable interest is being lent to the representations being made at Washington at the beginning of this week by Lord Reading and several prominent Canadian bankers for the removal of the United States embargo on gold entering Canada. This has operated to retard commercial relations between the two countries, and now for the first time since the beginning of the war the exchange rate is in favor of the Canadian buyer in American markets as a result of the unusual conditions. The large sums listed in the monthly bank statements as "call loans outside Canada" have undergone diminution recently, due to the reversal in the exchange position. It is felt that the secretary of the United States treasury will accede to the request of the Canadian banking interest and relax the embargo on the precious metal. The position which Canada is coming to take as a gold-producing country makes doubly important the securing of a free exchange of the metal from the United States' point of view. Canada has been a large customer in the American markets, and it has only come about recently with the large shipments of grain across the border that our exports have been in excess of our imports from the United States. New York drafts were discounted 15-16 last week. Under other conditions the situation would be reversed to the same extent. While instituted initially to prevent the leakage of gold to neutral countries, the embargo action of the United States is likely to create hardship in connection with dealings with Canada.

London Market Less Depressed Discount Rates Are Steady

London, Oct. 30.—Money was in good demand today. Discount rates were steady. The weekly war bond sales were smaller, at £14,000,000. The stock market was still apprehensive regarding Italy, but was less depressed. Italian exchange was 38.05, against a normal of 25.22.

Prices of British securities occasionally were firmer. In other directions the market was harder. Spanish, Russian and Scandinavian bonds made a good showing. Rubbers and Argentine rails were better on repurchases. American stocks were easy.

NEW YORK SUGAR PRICES.

New York, Oct. 30.—Basic price for sugar delivered in New York City was fixed at $6.90, duty paid, for "96 centrifugal," by the internal sugar committee in conference here tonight. The committee has under consideration fixing of prices for other refining points.

St. Paschal, Que., Oct. 30.—At the meeting of the dairy board today 200 boxes of cheese were offered and sold to Hodgson Bros., Montreal, at 21 5-32 cents; 100 packages of butter were offered and sold at 41 cents.
