

CANADA WATCHING FOR UNDESIRABLES

Agents in Europe Are Educating People as to Qualifications Required.

New York, Feb. 13.—Many immigrants are arriving daily in New York bound for Canada, and while it rests with the steamship companies to see to it that they get thru to the border by rail, the United States authorities frequently find it necessary to make inspections and to delay suspects at Ellis Island...

HERE, THERE AND EVERYWHERE

BY IDA L. WEBSTER.

The millennium must be at hand, because Assessment Commissioner Forman has not been publicly "bawled out" for three whole days.

A slight for the gods is to see Controller Maguire when he takes the mayor's chair at a board meeting.

About the cheapest guy in the world is one who refuses to buy a paper of his own, but who hangs over your shoulder in the street car and reads yours.

Property Commissioner Chisholm is a good-hearted soul in more ways than one. For instance, he is as tickled as Punch because the roll-call at the jail farm and the Mercator Refractory show that the women who are coming within the grasp of the law are getting about as scarce as hens' teeth.

The Rosedale entry "Stadium" was evidently in the hands of her owner, because she was not given her usual center before the committee, which sat yesterday. Probably the old nag's jockeys feared the harsh look of our friend, Rolly Harris.

If Thomas Langton Church keeps on nagging at the folks in the parliament buildings in regard to the street Robert Fleming, esquire, will yank off the three Avenue Road cars he now has on the line. In all seriousness we ask you, Thomas, to lay off that man for a few weeks.

Now, the next big question for Commissioner Harris to be worried about is when he is going to get busy on the Tpralay street extension?

Attorney-General Raney is said to be a bit perturbed because some people have spread news that he is narrow-minded. That certainly is tough, but he should hear what a few smart ones have called us. Some day we might get together and exchange gossip.

Salvation Army Prepares To Greet Commissioner Lamb. Commissioner Lamb, one of the most notable chiefs of the Salvation Army in the world, is expected in Toronto very shortly, accompanied by Colonel Charles Taylor, an old Toronto boy.

Commissioner Lamb will be best remembered for his specially fine work in India. He is now the international commissioner for the army. Commissioner Richards will on Wednesday welcome another well-known official of the Army, Lieut.-Col. Martin, who is now in charge of the Salvation Army work in Newfoundland.

Colonel Martin will be accompanied by his wife.

Flight-Lieut. Bell, son of Lieut.-Col. Bell of the Army, arrived in Toronto yesterday. He has seen considerable service with the Royal Air Force in France and Belgium.

MRS. N. A. KEARNS DEAD. Parkdale Loses Church Soloist and Mendelssohn Choir a Fine Con-tribute.

The funeral of Anna Mary Augusta Williams, wife of Norman A. Kearns, took place from her late residence, 107 Empress crescent, on Tuesday afternoon at Mount Pleasant Cemetery.

The funeral services were conducted by Rev. J. B. McIlroy, assisted by Bishop W. Brewing.

Deceased, who was only 29 years of age, was very popular in Parkdale district, being an active member of Cowan Avenue Presbyterian Church, where her death came as a severe shock to those who had listened many times to her fine contralto voice as a soloist in the church, of which she was a member.

She was also a very popular member of the Mendelssohn Choir and National Chorus for a number of years. Her friends were many as evinced by the large number of floral tributes.

Her death was very sudden, she having contracted a cold, which rapidly developed into pneumonia. She passed away Sunday morning, February 8. Beside her husband, she leaves a daughter, four years old, parson, Mr. and Mrs. Williams, 113 Springhurst avenue, of this city, and several brothers and sisters to mourn her loss.

ST. AUGUSTINE'S ANNIVERSARY. The seventeenth anniversary of the dedication of St. Augustine's Church will be observed tomorrow, with special musical services with orchestral accompaniment.

At the close of the evening service a recital of sacred music will be given by the choir and orchestra, the anthem being Hollins' "O Worship the Lord."

CLAIMS NOTABLES HIRED GUNMEN

Plaintiff for $8,175,000 Makes Charge Against Sir Edmund Osler.

Before the master in chambers at Osgoode Hall yesterday the action opened in which David Russell claims $8,175,000 from Sir Edmund Osler, Hon. William Pugsley and the trustees of the late H. C. Hammond and Hon. Donald MacInnes, on a motion by the defendants to dismiss it.

The action was brought over an alleged transaction some years ago by which plaintiff bought some 600,000 acres of western land, for which, he alleges, he paid defendants $500,000. Among other extraordinary allegations made by the plaintiff is the charge that the defendants attempted to put him out of the way, and did not hesitate to impress into their service some of the most desperate thugs and gunmen of the New York underworld.

J. Gray appeared for the plaintiff and C. C. Robinson and A. W. Langmuir for the defendants. Mr. Gray said it had been the policy of the defendants to minimize plaintiff's claims, and Mr. Robinson said that the allegations were just plain lies.

Changed Solicitors. It was stated that an order for the examination of the plaintiff was taken out last October and adjourned several times at the request of the plaintiff's solicitor, and was finally dropped. It was stated that the plaintiff had been in possession of the land since the time of the examination of his solicitors several times.

The motion to dismiss the action was enlarged sine die to permit the defendants to examine the plaintiff on his affidavit. Mr. Gray was not sure when he could produce him, and asked if he could proceed with the examination of Sir Edmund Osler. "No," replied the master, "you are in default."

The matter has already been much litigated, and in the plaintiff's claim is the statement that he has paid $200,000 in legal expenses.

WORLD AND YOUNG BOTH TO APPEAL

Paper Claims Jury Misdirected in Alleged Libel Action.

Notices of appeal were entered yesterday at Osgoode Hall by both The World Newspaper Publishing Co. and Detective George Young, against the judgment given by the late Sir Glenholme Falconbridge. The judgment awarded Mr. Young, a member of the Toronto police force, $100 damages for libel against the newspaper and dismissed the action against Mrs. Ida L. George, who wrote the article concerning which there was a complaint.

In their notice of appeal The World Newspaper Company says: "If the company acted culpably, and there is a difference in their culpability, the difference is in favor of the company and not in favor of Mrs. Ida L. George. It is not possible for The World Newspaper Company to be guilty of libel and for Mrs. George not to be guilty of libel."

"The learned judge erred in not directing the jury to ascertain the truth or the falsity of the statements, instead of directing that the company should not come under the general war measure of the defendant because Mrs. George was an employee of theirs."

Question of Costs. "The company claims that the costs of Mrs. George should not be added in the judgment."

"The judge erred in admitting the evidence of several witnesses concerning matters irrelevant to the issue. He also erred in failing to distinguish between a defence of justification and a defence of fair comment."

"The learned judge erred in failing to admit evidence to explain the words 'stuck to our last' in the articles concerning which there was a complaint."

"The judgment settled by the registrar after the death of the late chief justice of the King's bench (Sir Glenholme Falconbridge) is not in accordance with the direction for judgment endorsed by the judge."

In his statement of reasons for setting down an appeal, Detective George Young says that he believes the judgment should be entered against Mrs. Ida L. George as well as The World Publishing Company and that he considers the damages unreasonably small.

GLASS OF SALTS CLEANS KIDNEYS

If Your Back Hurts or Bladder Bothers You, Drink Lots of Water.

When your kidneys hurt and your back feels sore, don't get scared and proceed to load your stomach with a lot of drugs that excite the kidneys and irritate the entire urinary tract. Keep your kidneys clean like you keep your bowels clean, by flushing them with a mild, harmless salt which removes the body's urinous waste and stimulates them to their normal activity. The function of the kidneys is to filter the blood. In 24 hours they strain from it 500 grains of acid and waste, so we can readily understand the vital importance of keeping the kidneys active.

Drink lots of water—you can't drink too much; also get from any pharmacy about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning for a few days and your kidneys will act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate clogged kidneys; also to neutralize the acids in urine, so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness. Jad Salts is inactive and non-injurious; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink, which everyone should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean and active. Try it, this also keep up the water drinking, and no doubt you will wonder what became of your kidney trouble and backache.

What Will You Do If The Farmer Goes on Strike?

In the troublous period since the signing of the armistice, labor in the United States has been involved in a series of strikes, capital "has shown a disposition to strike in the sense of not seeking investments that are essential to the country," and now the Post Office Department warns us the farmers threaten to strike. "The time is very near," says one letter to the Department, "when we farmers will have to curtail production and raise only what we need for our own use, and let the other fellows look out for themselves."

The leading article in THE LITERARY DIGEST for this week, February 14th, presents the views of the leading farm journals upon the replies received from farmers by the Post Office Department to a questionnaire which it recently sent out to two hundred thousand agriculturists. There is information in this article that deeply concerns millions of city dwellers and the warning sounded is not to be lightly ignored.

FUND NEEDED FOR SOLDIERS' CHILDREN

Must Be Helped or Leave School, Says I.O.D.E. Secretary.

Mrs. Selwyn Holmstead, educational secretary of the Municipal Chapter, I.O.D.E., made a stirring appeal to the primary chapters, the regents of which met yesterday at the municipal meeting to take a special interest in the education of children of soldiers who without help will have to discontinue attendance at school.

Mrs. Holmstead gave four specified cases and asked $100 be given each for clothing and books. The meeting was most sympathetic, and it is expected a response will be forthcoming. The cases in question do not come under the general war memorial fund, for which the Daughters of the Empire are working, as the fund is for university education only.

Mrs. A. F. Batten, convener of the distributing committee, reported that the families of 24 soldiers had been cared for during the winter and 500 articles of clothing distributed. Mrs. A. F. Batten was appointed to co-operate with Mrs. Holmstead in the selection and purchase of historic pictures for schools. The flag-chart will also be sent to various military hospitals. Mrs. W. R. Jackson gave a report of the formation of the provincial chapter.

The nomination of officers took place and Mrs. Graham Thompson, who presided in the absence of the regent, Miss Katherine O'Brien, announced that the annual meeting would be held in Foresters' Hall in March.

TURN HAIR DARK WITH SAGE TEA

If Mixed With Sulphur It Darkens So Naturally Nobody Can Tell.

The old-time mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur for darkening gray, streaked and faded hair is grand. It has been applied, simply moisten mother's recipe, and folks are again using it to keep their hair a good, even color, which is quite sensible, as gray hair is an age when a youthful appearance is of the greatest advantage.

Nowadays, though, we don't have the troublesome task of gathering the sage and the musky mixing at home. All drug stores sell the ready-to-use product, improved by the addition of other ingredients, called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." It is very popular, because nobody can discover when it has been applied, simply moisten your comb or a soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, but what the ladies call "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound" is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also promotes the soft lustre and appearance of abundance which is so attractive.
