
WEEKLY PUPILS' RECITALS.

In addition to lectures and talks, which will be delivered to the School by specialists in their different lines of art and literature, weekly private recitals are given by the pupils, and these are followed by criticisms by both pupils and teachers. This in itself is an educational factor of no small importance. The lectures by specialists give opportunities to the students of obtaining much valuable information on the subject of their studies, while the pupils' criticisms develop in themselves the perceptive faculties and give insight into weak points in their attainments, thus acting as guides in what to avoid and what to cultivate.

PUBLIC RECITALS.

Public Recitals and Exhibitions of Physical Culture are given by the pupils frequently during the season. Opportunities are thus afforded for public appearances under the most favorable auspices. During the third term each of the Seniors gives an evening in the Conservatory Music Hall, with vocal and instrumental assistance, at which he or she may make an exceptionally advantageous debut.

A NEW FEATURE

Is the addition to the staff of competent junior teachers, who will train pupils who find it impossible to take the complete School course and who desire private training only. The methods adopted will be similar to those used in the School; and all the junior training will be superintended by the Principal. This option commends itself especially to young pupils.

Miscellaneous.

An important item to be considered by those who contemplate attending a School of Elocution is that of expense. Board in all the large American cities ranges from $5 to $8 per week, while board equally good can be obtained in Toronto at from $3.50 to $5. Here already is a saving of $50 to $60 for the school year, while to those residing in Canada the saving in railroad fares and expenses will amount to probably another $30. So that students, by attending the Conservatory
