Many Enjoy Bridge and Ball Held by DeMonts Chapter In Georgian Room of "Beatty"

The annual ball and bridge given by the DeMonts Chapter, I. O. O. F., last evening in the Admiral Beatty Hotel was delightfully arranged and, as usual, very well attended, proving to be a most enjoyable and brilliant social event.

The guests were received by Mrs. George K. McLeod, the regent, wearing black cut velvet with an ermine scarf, and the two vice-regents, Mrs. Sherwood Skinner, wearing blue flat crepe with touches of gold embroidery, and Mrs. L. P. D. Tilley, who were grey chiffon heavily beaded with crystals. Dancing was enjoyed in the attractive Georgian ball room, where the Admiral Beatty orchestra furnished excellent dance numbers, commencing at 8.30. In the long foyer bridge tables were placed for those not desiring to dance.

DELICIOUS SUPPER

About 11 o'clock a delicious supper was served in the main dining room on the ground floor. The various committees in charge of the affair were: Tickets, Mrs. J. U. Thomas; advertising, Mrs. S. A. Jones; entertainment, Mrs. Walter W. White; Mrs. F. W. Denzil and Miss Edith Skinner; refreshments, Mrs. Busby and Miss Parks. In the ball room the beautiful gowns of the ladies made a colorful and charming appearance, attractive sequined and beaded gowns as well as dainty tulle and chiffon being much in vogue.

Among the many present were: His Worship Mayor White and Mrs. White, Hon. Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Foster, Dr. and Mrs. F. R. Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Sherwood Skinner, Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Bealy, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Daniel, Mr. and Mrs. R. Buchanan, Major and Mrs. George Oland, Dr. and Mrs. Philip Nace, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Keator, Dr. H. A. Farris, Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Johnston, Mr. and Mrs. Jack nett, Mr. Gordon Peters, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas U. Mowry, Dr. and Mrs. F. R. Horton, of Woodstock, and Mrs. Lillian Gilchrist.

The bridge prizes were won by Mrs. H. F. Puddington and Mr. Corlanti Robinson.

Weddings

Shinnett-Pettie.

A quiet but very pretty wedding took place Thursday afternoon at 8.30 o'clock at German street Baptist parsonage, when Rev. S. S. Poole united in marriage Miss Beatrice M. Pettie, of Wirral, eldest daughter of Mrs. Henry Brown, to Chester T. Shinnett, of this city, son of Mrs. R. Kirkpatrick. The bride looked charming in a gown of blue velvet and silver trimmings and silver shoes with stockings to match.

She was attended by Miss Mary Dempster, who was dressed in coral blue velvet, while William S. Pettie, brother of the bride, acted as groomsmen. After the ceremony the young couple left for Wirral, where there will be a reception and dance. On their return they will reside in this city.

Eclectic Club Has Fine Programme On Post-War Literature

An exceedingly interesting program was given at the meeting of the Eclectic Club held at the residence of Mrs. Francis Stetson, Mount Pleasant avenue last evening. Mrs. Margaret Lawrence had charge of the program and its subject was "Characteristics of Literature Since the War." The subject was taken up under three headings, biographies, the modern novel, poetry and drama. Mrs. Lawrence gave an excellent introductory paper for each of the three sections of the program. Rev. Dr. W. R. Hibbard, of Rousesay, gave a reading on biographies since the war, and Miss Puddington read from "The Glass of Fashion," concerning the biographies of Colonel Repington and Mrs. Asquith. Mrs. Heber Vroom read a paper on the modern novel, and some modern poems were read by Miss Annie Scammell. The president, Richard Hooper, was in the chair. At the close of the evening when refreshments were served. A birthday cake was brought in and it was announced that Dr. Hibbard and Rev. Canon Daniel were celebrating their birthdays that day.
