ATHLETICS DURING A.M. AND AFTERNOON

Event of Sports Will Be Ball Game With Saint John Team

ST. JOSEPH'S, N. B., May 20— The annual field day of the students of St. Joseph's University, is to be celebrated on a large scale this year on May 24. A day of real sport is planned, followed by an evening of entertainment, and it is expected to outclass all previous field days. The morning and afternoon will be taken up with sports and a band concert, and in the evening will be given the super-drama "Calvary," with 40 students in the cast.

event, the mile run, followed by many other similar events which will be carother similar events which will be carried over until early in the afternoon. This will be followed at 3 o'clock by a game of baseball. It is expected that a team from Saint John will be on hand to meet the college nine. In anticipation of being pitted against a strong lineup under the command of last year's remarkable stand-by, "Tack" Dalton, of the class of '25, St. Joseph's team is hard at practice to and at 5 p.m.

The event of the evening will be the reproduction of "Calvary"—a super-drama with a cast of forty students—depicting the betrayal and death of Christ, interwoven with many biblical events and
