

BOBBY JONES IS RATED BEST GOLFER

GEORGIAN TOPS LIST-COMPILED FROM AVERAGES

United States Golfer Best of Twenty Who Played This Season in England

LONDON, July 24.—Bobby Jones, of Atlanta, holder of both the American and British open championships, heads this year's list of twenty golfers annually compiled from averages in the principal stroke competitions on British links, beginning with the Royal St. George's and ending with the Claretton.

Eight of the rest also are Americans. Two of the nine Americans—Jones and George Von Elm—are amateurs.

British commentators remark on the strongly American flavor of the list. They also feel that it is a disquieting fact that only one of the eleven British professionals—Jelly—is a comparatively newcomer. Taylor, for instance, won the open before Bobby Jones was born, while nearly all the rest bear names that have been household names to British golfing followers for the last eight or ten years.

The averages, with the number of rounds played, are figured as follows:

Bobby Jones, United States	(12)	70.83
George Von Elm, U. S.	(12)	70.88
George Von Elm, U. S.	(12)	70.88
Archie Compston, England	(16)	74.06
J. H. Taylor, England	(8)	74.12
Walter Hagen, U. S.	(10)	74.20
Al Watrous, United States	(10)	74.40
George Cadd, England	(18)	74.61
George Duncan, Scotland	(14)	74.71
Aubrey Boomer, England	(14)	74.81
Ted Ray, England	(14)	75.00
Fred McLeod, United States	(6)	75.00
Frederick Robson, England	(12)	75.16
Bill Melhorn, U. S.	(10)	75.20
Tom Williamson, England	(18)	75.22
Herbert C. Jolly, England	(18)	75.27
Tommy Armour, U. S.	(18)	75.58
Jim Barnes, United States	(6)	75.58
Joe Kirkwood, United States	(6)	75.58
Walter Havers, England	(16)	75.87

SHAW AT 70 LIVES UPON SIMPLE FOOD

LONDON, July 23.—George Bernard Shaw will be 70 years old on July 26, but he will not overeat his stomach with an elaborate birthday dinner.

In fact, the eccentric dramatist never eats a heavy dinner. That is the reason he says he is in good health and is able to work steadily without exhaustion. He rarely accepts an invitation to dine out, and if he does he eats only simple food. Vegetables and fruit make up his diet. He never eats meat.

OPENS RICH AREA

WASHINGTON, July 24.—A territory of 1,800 square miles of rich farm and pasture land is opened up by the permit of the Interstate Commerce Commission to the Dodge City & Cimarron Valley Railroad to build an extension from Munter, Kas., to a point near Joycoy, Colo. Less than one per cent of the area is in timber.

OFF ON THE WINGS OF THE WIND

There's no sight prettier than a yacht race under full headway, on a sunny day with a bright sea and a strong breeze filling the sails. This stretch of sail is the start of the 30-foot class race of the Larchmont Yacht Club regatta, Larchmont, N. Y.

MILES WINS RACE AT YARMOUTH MEET

Johnny Easily Trims Hennigan—Horse Racing Also Enjoyed

YARMOUTH, N. S., July 23.—Two thousand people at the Victoria Driving Park this afternoon witnessed the biggest sporting event ever presented before the Yarmouth people, when Johnny Miles, of Sydney Mines, Cape Breton, world-famed Marathoner, easily defeated Jimmy Hennigan, of Dorchester, Mass., in a ten-mile race.

As the runners passed the mark and entered on the last lap of the ten mile grind, Miles with a sharp spurt took the lead. It was only for a few steps, when Hennigan quickly retrieved his loss and again headed Miles. As quickly as Hennigan had headed him, Miles again, with a dash which he never relaxed, went ahead of Hennigan and before the two runners turned into the back stretch of the track he had opened a gap of several yards. From then to the finish Miles never slackened the terrific pace which he set and he crossed the line leading by about 100 yards.

The time for the 10 miles was not fast and Miles won in 58 minutes and 22 seconds, due largely to the head wind encountered on the home stretch.

HORSE RACING

In addition to the above, the Victoria Driving Association presented the snappiest program of horse racing seen in Yarmouth for many months. There were three classes to start, 2:20, 2:22 and 2:30. In the two first named it took five heats to decide the winner, but the last was won by Truro Bell in three straight. In the 2:30 for the first two heats it appeared to be anybody's race when the first went to Anita belonging to N. Silver and the second was taken by C. W. DeWitt's Confection. After the race for first place

Pirates Pay $15,000 For Freddie Brickell

WICHITA, Kan., July 24.—Freddie Brickell, sensational 19-year-old centre fielder of the Wichita Western League Baseball Club, has been sold to the Pittsburgh Pirates for about fifteen thousand dollars. It was announced here today. Brickell will finish the season here unless the Pirates get into the world series.

Mr. Cook, who had maintained a summer home here for 25 years, was at dinner when a heavy windstorm broke over the coast, following a day of extreme heat. From the window of his ocean front cottage he noticed that a canoe belonging to his son had broken away and was drifting out to sea. He ran to the beach and plunged in fully clothed, in an effort to retrieve the canoe.

Mr. Cook was 60 years old. His wife and three children were at the cottage here.

was between those two horses, with Confection winning in the fifth heat. The 2:22 was won by W. R. Acker's horse The Drift, from Halifax.

CARDS THREATEN REDS FOR LEAD

Hornaby Is Fighting Greatest Battle of Career for Pennant

NEW YORK, July 24.—Rogers Hornaby's St. Louis Cardinals appear to be making the spurt designed to carry them to the front in the National League, and Cincinnati, now leading, has given some ground in the terrific pace.

Hornaby, roused to the point where he is fighting the greatest battle of his career, went into yesterday's contest with the New York Giants, despite a painful injury to his right eye.

The Cardinals won, 6 to 1, Bill Sherdel left-handing excellently throughout. This victory placed the Cardinals only 8½ games behind the leaders. Philadelphia outlived the Chicago Cubs, but went down, 5 to 3, with Charley Root keeping the easterners' hits well scattered.

Fourteen hits off Mays and Nehf gave the Boston Braves a 6 to 2 victory over Cincinnati. Dave Bancroft, leading the onslaught with three singles for a perfect day at the plate, Jack Smith, former St. Louis out-
