After the ceremony, a dainty supper was served, and the young couple left for their home in Silver Falls.

MARKET CASES.

Policeman Saunders testified he saw McLeod take eight bags of potatoes and Sherwood three bags of potatoes from the store of W. L. Walsh, Haymarket square. Later, Sherwood, he said, asked him not to cause any trouble, and offered to fix it up with witness if he wouldn't report him or Mr. Walsh.
 John Stevenson and Samuel Withers, clerks in the city market, said they had received no fees from either of the defendants.
 For the defence, W. L. Walsh said these men had been bringing him stuff for years. In the morning they left it in his store along with an order for goods they wanted, and he got them the goods. He didn't buy any of the things from them, he said.
 The defendants were told to sit aside, after being warned they were liable to fines of $20 each.

YOUNG MEN AND PROGRESS
 (Contributed by Hardware Clerks' Association)
 It must be gratifying to the young men of today, especially to those deeply interested in municipal distribution of the hydro-electric current, to know that the heads of the great St. John business houses, at the time they started in business, were very young, some of them hardly out of their boyhood days, but they were possessed with vision, optimism and foresight, and have made St. John what it is today.
 It is not of place to mention the names of a few of these young men, who, without age or many years of experience, have built up institutions that are landmarks in our city.
 The names of Manchester Robertson Allison are identified with the largest mercantile house in Eastern Canada, yet Mr. Manchester, Mr. Robertson and Mr. Allison were all very young when they laid the foundations of this great organization.
 Another outstanding example of what young men have accomplished is the Hon. W. H. Thorne. Senator Thorne started in business at the age of twenty years. Nobody can question his success or judgment. Then we have E. L. Rising, president of Waterbury & Rising, Ltd. Mr. Rising was only twenty years of age when he started.
 Another fine example of what young men have done is T. H. Estabrooks. Mr. Estabrooks was only thirty-three at the time he commenced business, and today his name is known throughout Canada. Another instance—take one of our largest lumber concerns—Murray & Gregory, Ltd. We believe that J. Fraser Gregory was only in his thirties when he took charge of the large firm, yet Mr. Gregory has made good.
 For progress, it is necessary that young men should be young. The young men of today are equal to the young men of fifty years ago. Mayor Church of Toronto was around thirty years of age when elected. It is a noticeable fact that the city councils in most of the progressive western towns are composed of young men. It is time the young business men of St. John said: "You take it easy, Dad; and let me do the work."

WHISKEY THEFT CASE IN COURT
 Seven men, charged with being drunk, were before the magistrate this morning. Six of them pleaded guilty, and Policeman Orr gave evidence against the other. They were all remanded.
 The case against Leo Hayes, charged with the theft of two cases of whiskey from Raymond Tobias, was continued. Miss May Patchell testified that she was employed at Mr. Tobias' home, 18 Brunswick street. On the night of Jan. 19 she went out about 6:30 o'clock, locking both the doors after her. She returned at about seven o'clock and found the front door open. On cross-examination she said she was positive she locked both doors. She knew the defendant, but never saw him in the house of Mr. Tobias.
 George Allingham said that on Jan. 18 he bought two cases of Black and White whiskey from the defendant and another man for $80, giving each of them $40. The case was postponed until Friday morning. E. J. Henneberry appeared for the defence.
 James Merritt, William McAler, Ernest Bushan and George Cook, who had formerly pleaded guilty to charges of theft of coal from the C. N. R., were before the court this morning. The magistrate promised to look into their case and remanded them. George Cook was called as a witness in the case against DeVeau and Donette, who pleaded not guilty to similar charges. He testified that he had seen these two go into the yards with a sled and some empty bags. Later he saw them with two others and they had the bags filled. They were remanded.
