A GOOD PLACE TO BUY GOOD CLOTHES

Gilmour's New Spring Overcoats

The new line is now here. It is a good line, embodying, we believe, more points of superiority than has been displayed even in the best of our past season's offerings.

This is because the designers' art and the tailors' craft are develop-

Constant effort plus experience have enabled the producers of these elegant overcoats to give us something that stands out prominently above the commonplace, and our garments will mark the wearer as a distinctly well dressed man. At $12.00 to $27.50, we have black, gray and Scotch effects, many of them silk-faced or silk-lined, and in several models besides the standard Chesterfield.

Eczema cannot be overcome by ordinary reatment and the old-fashioned way of dosing the system with drugs. Eczema is caused by a parasitic germ that bores into the skin. It is generally a contagious disease. Until the parasite is completely destroyed and removed, eczema cannot be cured. Fully one-third of skin diseases are in the form of eczema.

Word of the death of Jeremiah Crowley who died in East Boston after a lingering illness, has reached the city. Mr. Crowley was a son of the late Martin Crowley, of this city, and leaves a wife, two sons and two daughters. He was seventy-one Cambridge, Mass., March 2—(CCanadian Press)—For the murder of Miss Annie Mullens of St. John's, Nfid., in Arlington on March 28, 1908, James Mantier of Manchester N. H., was today sentenced to the state prison for life and his companion, Peter Delorey, of Somerville, for a term of eighteen to twenty years.

BUT HE WAS ARRESTED.

James Miller, aged 29, had a high opinion of his athletic prowess when being arrested last night at Reed's Point, on a charge of "drunkenness, and he strongly resisted being placed in custody. The whole police force, in his opinion, was not sufficient to take him to the lock-up, and to make his protestations more pronounced it is said

The statement that no players showed that he is keeping up the reputation of the school at the University of New Bruns wick. His success in winning the Wilmot basket ball league last night is incorrect. All grades of sugar went up ten cents today. This is the second advance in two weeks.

The statement that no players showed that he is keeping up the reputation of the school at the University of New Bruns wick. His success in winning the Wilmot schoolarship at the beginning of this year has already been noted, and in the term examinations he led his class with an average of '92 marks, while in his five honor subjects, including Latin, Greek, German, mathematics and English, he had an average of '95 marks. The young man is a son of E. S. Carter of Fairvale.

WILL ARRIVE TODAY.

Rev. Dr. Chown, general superintendent of the Methodist Church of Canada, will arrive here this afternoon. He will be served in the term and Rev. W. W. Brewer. This evening a reception will be tendered him and Rev. T. Albert Moore, who accompanies him. A light lunch will be served in Centenary chool room at 6 o'clock. To morrow there will be two conferences on the state of the work, and a public meeting in Exmouth street church in the evening.
