3 PRIZE WINNERS IN CARD TOURNAMENT

Night Men Have Dinner Together in Wentworth Street Quarters.

One of the first of a series of get-togethers for the employees of the New Brunswick Power Co., Ltd., promoted by the company, was held in the main office room last evening when fully 100 men were present and spent a most enjoyable time. Following an evening spent in playing party-dice, an address on "Co-operation" was given by John A. Olive, secretary-treasurer of the company. M. A. Foster was unable to attend as he is out of the city. Refreshments were served and the gathering broke up after giving three rousing cheers for the company.

The prize winners in the card tournament were: First, C. G. Wallon, street railway; second, D. Allen, car barns department; and third, W. Ingraham, also of the car barns department.

The Assemblage. Included in last night's gathering were the heads of the various departments in addition to members of the staff of the gas plant, the car barns, the power house, the motormen, the car sheds and the track department. Leonard M. Wilson was convener for the affair and much credit was given him for the arrangements in the enthusiastic manner in which the men entered into the spirit of the gathering. To accommodate members of the night staff, dinner was served by the company to about 60 members of this division in the recreation room at the Wentworth street station at 8 o'clock. Mr. Olive then delivered a short address, while heads of the departments in attendance were present as chairman for this, which proved as successful as the one last evening.

J. F. Trifts Resigns Post at St. Paul's After Lengthy Service.

After 43 years of faithful service as sexton of St. Paul's church, J. F. Trifts has resigned from this position. Crowfoot made special reference to Mr. Trifts in an article in the magazine published by St. Paul's church. Faithfulness, keen interest in the activities of the church and loving willingness to perform all the duties of his office, are referred to with fine appreciation of Archdeacon Crowfoot. ## Y. M. C. A. TEAM LEADS CANADA

Captures Championship of Dominion in Annual Hexathlon Events

ARE CLOSE UP IN INTERNATIONAL

Only 68 Points Behind Athol, Mass., as Leaders on Continent

The Y. M. C. A. Seniors of this city have not only a second time captured the championship of Canada in the annual Hexathlon tests of speed, endurance and strength but in a congratulatory letter received from Dr. John Brown Jr. of the International Council it is announced they have come dangerously near winning the international title. This good news came to the local branch through a personal letter to Physical Instructor H. T. C. Hutton, who is a very much dated gentleman today and quite naturally so.

WHAT THEY DID

The Hexathlon, the Greek word implies, means a contest of six events—short potato race, long potato race, running high jump, standing broad jump, shot put and fence vault. Each Y. M. C. A. branch on the North American continent carries on its tests under scrupulous conditions and records of each event are duly attested before being submitted to the committee of judges.

CHAMPIONS OF CLASS C

It should be understood that in classifying contestants for these international tournaments cities and towns are divided into A, B and C. These initials indicate the numerical strength of each Y. M. C. A. branch in the department of athletics. Saint John being classed in the group of smallest cities as to a large field comes in as Class C rating. Therefore it is runner-up in the international of that division but has had perhaps as keen competition as either the B or A classes, which include the metropolitan centres.

The Saint John Seniors who have won this distinction for the Y. are: W. Pollard, W. E. Yeoman, D. Anglin, C. Thomas, G. Weir, R. Patten, G. Turner, R. H. McCready, A. MacGowan, A. Malcolm, R. Rockwell, W. F. Allen, W. W. Warren, A. Gillen, D. Robertson, J. McMurray, J. Hollis, A. Priest, D. Mulesky, K. Nelson and L. Nee.

DOES MISSION WORK FOR NEW BRUNSWICK

Charles Magnusson Writes Home About What he Finds on Scandinavian Visit.

Charles Magnusson, who has gone to the Scandinavian countries of Norway, Sweden and Denmark, on an immigration mission for New Brunswick, writes to his son, Harry E. Magnusson, that the people there know nothing of Canada, east of Montreal. Mr. Magnusson is doing his best to enlighten them, and hopes to awaken a practical interest in the minds of the Scandinavians as to the great advantages for farming in New Brunswick particularly. He has been able to cite the success of the New Denmark district in Victoria county and to tell of the government lands in the Bluebell district, near New Denmark, which are available for new settlers. Harry Magnusson said, when asked about his father's report of his trip. Mr. Magnusson expects to return via England and will sail from there May 7 and will probably be in Saint John May 16.

FAIRVILLE MEETINGS

"By the way," said The Times reporter to Mr. Hiram Hornbeam, "I have not heard you mention Miss Birdie McWha of late."

She hed 'em all over to show Hanner las' night—an' Hanner she'll look reel peart when she gits 'em all on. Birdie's been takin' a fust aid course an' some o' the fellers is figurin' out how they kin break a limb without it hurtin' too much—so to give Birdie a chance to show what she kin do."
"You must give her my kind regards," said the reporter. "I have always thought a preacher must be thankful fer Easter Sunday."
"Yes," said Hiram, "any old sermon from the bottom o' the barrel is good enough fer folks to un' their eyes untid o' their ears that day—By Hen!"
