

Q-93 Were you on pass when you went?

A- No, sir, I wasn't on pass.

Q-94 You just walked out of camp, did you?

A- Just as I have stated in my statement.

Q-95 There is no statement before the Court?

A- Well, sir, I have -- I can't explain myself hardly on that statement.

Q-96 Well, there is no statement before the Court. You just tell the Court what you want to tell them now?

---BY THE PRESIDENT:

Q-97 You just tell us what you want now?

A- Well, sir, I have always had urges to go away, and there is nothing I can do about it. I just want to go, and everything seems to be in a fog. I am myself other times.

---CROSS-EXAMINATION CONTINUES:

Q-98 Did you just walk out during a parade, or just walk out of what?

A- I am liable to go any time.

Q-99 I am not asking you what is liable. What did you do?

A- I found myself out of camp, and all I knew I was away.

Q-100 And you had no pass?

A- No, I had no pass in my pocket.

Q-101 And you don't remember getting off the train and how you got out?

A- I don't remember when I left the train, sir.

Q-102 I notice you were picked up by the military police both times in civilian clothes. Did you not intend to come back to the Army?

A- I did, sir, but I didn't intend to come back for awhile. I knew I would have to face detention when I come back, and I was putting it off.
