THE MANIAC AND THE MIRROR.

An Ex-Keeper's Story of a Narrow Escape From Death.

"Many persons who are superstitious regard the breaking of a looking-glass as omen of bad luck," said a visitor at the St. James, "but I had an experience once where I think that the breaking of a looking-glass was the means of saving my life. I was the keeper in the state asylum at that time. One evening about 11 o'clock, I was in my room reading, when I thought I saw a shadow on the wall, and on turning round I was startled to see one of the patients, a man whose mania took a most violent form, standing in the doorway. He had always been kept under lock and key, and how he managed to get out is a mystery to me to this day. I tried to appear as cool as possible, and asked him what he wanted.
'I have come to kill you,' he replied, at the same time taking from his pocket a pistol, which he had gained possession of in some unaccountable manner. As he advanced towards me his eyes wandered around the room, when all at once he saw his own image in a large mirror that hung on the wall. His whole demeanor changed in an instant, and, seeming to forget all about me, he crept towards the supposed to be another man.
Suddenly with a yell, he raised and fired point blank at his image in the glass.
The mirror was broken into a thousand pieces. His back was turned to me, and in an instant I sprang upon him, and held him until help arrived. I have always thought that glass was the means of saving my life.—St. Louis Globe-Jom-

Pains in the Joints Caused by Inflammatory Swelling

A Perfect Cure by Hood's Sarsaparilla.
"It affords me much pleasure to recommend Hood's Sarsaparilla. My son was afflicted with great pain in the joints, accompanied with swelling so bad that he could not get up stairs or bed without crawling on his hands and knees. I was very anxious about him, and having read of Hood's Sarsaparilla Cures so much about Hood's Sarsaparilla, I determined to try it, and got a half-dozen bottles, four of which entirely cured him." Mrs. C. A.

TO WARD OFF CONTAGION.

Meeting of American Medical Societies to Consider Plans.

Springfield, Ill., May 18.—In response to a call of the state board of health a large number of representatives of county, municipal, and township health organizations, and local medical societies assembled here to-day. The state board has become convinced that stringent measures must be adopted in order to secure results in combating smallpox and other infectious diseases, as well as in order to secure the receipt of trustworthy information regarding the sanitary conditions in different localities in the state, and the prevention of infection where most needed.

Through this conference it is thought that a system will be developed whereby the best possible results will be attained in the future. The afternoon and those of to-morrow sanitary questions, organization, legislation, quarantining, and other vital subjects will be considered.

SLEEPER WAS AWAKE.

An Ohio Legislator Who Could Not Be Asleep.

Columbus, Ohio, May 18.—During the closing hours of the legislature last night the house took up the Hocking bill to lease four miles of the Hocking canal to the Columbus, Hocking Valley & Athens Railway company for a road and $30,000 cash and $6,000 a year.
The bill had already passed the senate.

The new road would run parallel to the Columbus & Hocking Valley's road to the canal, and that company fought the bill. Last week a new company, the Chicago, Columbus & Southeastern, was incorporated, and it made a higher bid for the canal. Representative D. L.
Bryce of Athens, tonight charged that the Columbus & Hocking Valley was behind the new railroad company, and charged that it was incorporated in the office of Senator C. S. Bryce.

Mr. Bryce is director of the Columbus & Hocking Valley. Representative Griffin said this was false, and repeatedly gave the lie to Sleeper. Sleeper replied that Col. W. C. Lemert, of Bucyrus, one of the incorporators of the Chicago & Southeastern, had told him that company was organized in Senator Bryce's office. Col. Lemert was at that moment occupying a seat in the chamber.
Pointing his finger at him, Mr. Sleeper cried:

"And that man's attorney offered me $5,000 and expenses if I would withdraw my support from this bill and work for his company. I demand that he be expelled from the chamber."
The house cheered Sleeper. Representative Barber said some one ought to be in the penitentiary. The substitute in the interest of Lemert's road was defeated and the bill of the Columbus & Southeastern was passed.
A resolution to investigate the charge of bribery was introduced.

FELL BY THE WAYSIDE.

A Story That Possesses Some Interest for British Columbians.

London, May 18.—A scandal involving two continents received its final quietus in the divorce court, when the Rt. Hon.
Judge Jenne made absolute the decree of divorce between the parties of a party a few days ago in the suit of Roderick Matheson, son of Sir Arthur Matheson, a baronet of great wealth, against his wife.

The case was a remarkable one, the husband being an absolute deaf and almost dumb as a result of a sunstroke received while a child. He was married in 1882 to Jane Clark, who is connected with a prominent Canadian family, the bride leaving at her own wish, and in consequence of ill movements. In 1885 and 1886 the couple travelled through the United States and Canada, and finally settled down in British Columbia, where the husband became joint proprietor and editor of a newspaper.

The wife's health failed, however, and she was compelled to return to England alone, her husband being unable to accompany her. She remained in England at home, she made the acquaintance of a young Frenchman and an Englishman, and being young and attractive, and also intemperate in her habits she fell by the wayside. Even after her husband's return to Canada she continued to see her while the husband was at business.

It was stated in court that the husband made his ex-wife an allowance of £20 weekly, if she would put herself under the care of a physician in Canada.
This offer was accepted in her behalf, and she will sail on Monday next.

COURSHIP IN KENTUCKY.

Old Man Owens Was Bound to Have That Girl Anyway.

Jeffersonville, Ind., May 18.—A couple of Kentucky elopers arrived here to-day.
He was fifty, and a comfortable looking man; she was sixteen, barefooted, in a red gown and sun bonnet. They were from Lenoir county, where by James Owens, a relative of the Owens who was making the fight for congress against Col. Breckinridge in the Lexington district, has a fine farm and a bank account. She was Lizette Patterson, the daughter of a poor farmer.

Owens met her a few days ago on the road near his house, and being struck by her beauty stopped his buggy and asked her if she would marry him if her parents consented. Lizette said she reckoned she would, blushed and ran home. Owens followed and made his proposal to the old folks, but met with the most decided objection, being ejected by Lizette's father, who handled the elderly suitor rather roughly.

Owens, however, seems to have won the girl's favor, and two days ago he sent her word that if she would come to the spring near his house he would meet her there. She came barefooted and wearing the red gown and sun bonnet, picked her up bodily and carried her in his arms to his buggy, which stood near by, and drove furiously to Toneyville, the nearest railway station, twenty miles away.

Thence they took the train, arriving here to-day, and were married by a justice. They returned home at once.

ABOUT SAMOA.

Australians Much Interested—Ex-Prime Minister Gray's Opinions.

London, May 18.—Interest in the conference of imperial and colonial delegates at Ottawa, is greatly on the increase. The delegates from the Australian colonies to discuss the Samoa question. Hon. Mr. Hoffmeyer is coming from the Cape with Chief Jus-tus Villiers to represent that colony at the conference.

In an interview to-day ex-Prime Minister Gray expressed the belief that the United States would not tolerate any interference by Germany in the tripartite agreement of Samoa, although having been a part of the original conference.
He says the United States is secure but would not be if the Germans controlled Samoa. Gray favors the protection of New Zealand for Samoans.

ported lost on the African coast, says the

PRISONS FLASHES.

An Appreciated Official—Two Notorious Criminals Punished.

San Francisco, May 18.—Joseph H.
Styles, commissioner-general for Great Britain at the Midwinter Fair, has been appointed chief of foreign affairs for the Tacoma Interstate Fair.

Thomas Brown, who cut the throat of Margaretta Bertram, a disolute wife, during a quarrel several months ago, was to-day convicted of murder in the first degree. The jury fixed the punishment at the imprisonment for life.

Kern Kenny, the notorious half-intellectual swindler, was sent to state prison for eight years, having recently defrauded a stranger out of $600.
Argument was concluded this morning in the case of the Emerald smuggling ring. Judge Morrow will charge the jury this afternoon.

A charge was received at the Merchants' Exchange stating that the British ship M. E. Watson, from San Francisco, has arrived at Queenstown, and reports the loss of three men overboard during a gale.

R. H. Macdonald, jr., H. T. Graves, A. L. Jenkins and Charles Montgomery, of the wrecked People's bank, appeared before Judge Murphy this morning to be arraigned for embezzlement. The names of the witnesses on the indictment charging Macdonald with having embezzled $200,000 were found not to have been endorsed, and the arraignment on this charge was postponed till Wednesday next. The other cases went over until Tuesday.

Americans Equal Suffrage.

New York, May 18.—The petition sheets bearing the signatures of those in favor of the equal suffrage amendment to the constitution are called to-day and the books will be closed, and tomorrow the books will be transferred to the executive committee will transfer the scene of their labor to Albany. The antagonism to the movement that has been displayed by a large number of prominent women who were expected to at least remain silent, even if they did not approve the project, has somewhat dampened the ardor of the rank and file of the movement. The leaders, however, show no diminution of enthusiasm. Most of the members are non-committed on the subject, but it is the general belief that the ladies will be defeated when the matter comes to a vote.

In Case of Need—The Streets Deserted—The Mystery of the Decker Family Explained—Decker Was a Bad Man.

Vacaville, Cal., May 18.—The town was quiet last night. A guard was stationed at the town bell to be ready to ring out a danger signal at a moment's warning, for news had come that a body of 100 industrialists was camped about two miles from Winthers, and might give trouble, as they were reported to have committed some minor depredations. The streets were deserted, but pedestrians at every corner might run across a citizen or rancher in whose hands could be seen the barrel of a Winchester.

Williams, Cal., May 18.—Mrs. John Hamilton of this city, the alleged missing wife of Decker, on being interviewed stated as follows: "I am George Decker's first wife. I changed his name to Decker because of some trouble he had with a Mrs. McIntyre at Rio Vista, and forced me also to take his new name. We lived for about a year a few miles from Yreka, but never got along well with the McIntyre incident. He said I could stay or go as I pleased, and I eventually went, taking the baby, Nevada, with me to Knight's hotel at Yreka. At that time I signed a paper agreeing to a divorce, the name of Margaret E. Decker and I went back to my home in Yreka status and I never heard from him nor the children until the lawyer came here yesterday.

Benjamin Mitchell, brother of Mrs.
Decker No. 1, and the girl, Nevada Decker, are expected to arrive at Yreka at noon to-day, and Mrs. Decker will reach there by Saturday, when all will testify before the grand jury.

Berkeley, Cal., May 18.—The seventh annual meeting of the California Christian Endeavor union opened at Calvary Presbyterian church last evening.
Over 500 delegates were present. The convention will last several days.

San Quentin, Cal., May 18.—The jute mill was the scene of a quarrel yesterday which resulted in a stabbing affray. As a result Frank A. Jackson, a negro convict, is lying at the point of death from knife wounds in the abdomen. Richard Shee, convict sent from San Francisco for grand larceny, was involved in a quarrel with Jackson and before any of the guards could interfere Donouze seized a knife and plunged it into Jackson's abdomen. The weapon was one of the knives seized by convicts in their work at the mill.

PENDER AND TUPPER.

Progress of the Knightly Wrangle Over Pacific Cable.

London, May 18.—Sir Charles Tupper, Canadian high commissioner, and Sir John Pender, M. P., have been exchange-ing letters concerning the proposed Pacific cable. The correspondence arose from the paper which Sir Charles read before the colonial institute on May 18th.
Most of it had concern with technical matters. Sir John Pender yesterday told Charles Tupper that the Eastern Cable Company, which he is president, could compete with any cable company not directly subsidized. Seizing upon this point, Sir Charles Tupper, in to-day's Times, shows that cable under the control of Sir John Pender's company receive £2,100,000 government subsidies and guarantees. Sir Charles adds that no difficulty would arise in constructing and operating the proposed new Pacific cable upon the lines suggested by the Wel-ington, New Zealand, conference recently.

Sir John Pender proposes that the imperial and colonial governments should hand over the subsidies asked for to him, so as to enable the Eastern cable company to lay the proposed cable.

A Successor for Home—Active Oppositionists—Cotton vs. Gordon.

Vancouver, May 18.—An effort is being made to get George Barclay, a World of fice operator, to take Home's place on the ticket. The opposition held a rousing meeting last night to complete organization. Stirring addresses were delivered by A. Williams and W. C. Cotton. There was much enthusiasm.

In the application this morning in Gordon vs. Cotton, Justice Drake reserved judgment, but he said he would allow only 24 hours for appeal after delivering it.

J. Gill was arrested here this morning on a telegram from Victoria charging him with fraud. It is said to be at the instigation of John Thomas, and to be in connection with a land transfer. Gill was a saloon keeper here.

IMPERIAL INTERFERENCE.

Efforts to Release Mrs. Maybrick, the Cold Blooded Murderess.

London, May 18.—When Home Secretary Asquith returns with his bride from his honeymoon he will be presented with an influential signed petition asking permission for a lawyer to have an interview with Mrs. Maybrick, and ascertain whether she desires a public reinvestiga-tion of her case. Five hundred names of members of the aristocracy and persons prominent in professional pursuits and philanthropic work have already been appended to the petition, and double that number will be obtained within the next few days. The work is being conducted by a committee organized and headed by Lady Florence Dixie. The latter has issued an address to the public in which she says among other things:

"Men and women of England, give us your aid in securing justice for this forlorn woman. We are selfish people, inclined to consider only our own interests, and we are callous and indifferent to sufferings which we cannot feel. But let us try to put ourselves in Mrs. May-to help her to the best of our ability.

Let us try to secure her a chance of proving her innocence, and of recovering Pittsburg, May 18.—A gentleman who has just returned from Kentucky was in Lexington when Col. W. C. Breckinthe campaign. A Lexington man went
