

Translation

Francis Beaudette, aged 40 years, duly sworn, declares and says:-

I know the parties in this case. I know the land in dispute and the land that belongs to Meloche. Montour's land is on the west of Beaudette and Meloche's land on the north east of Beaudette. I have known this land for 26 years.

Once I saw Montour doing statute labour (?) I never heard that this land belonged to Osius Meloche.

I have cut hay on this land and arranged with the present owner, Jacques Lachandiere.

Cross-questioned by Mr. C. Chemier.

I took away all the hay that I cut. This year I again cut hay and took it away. The first time that I cut hay there, two years ago, I saw that the hay had been removed. I asked Mr. Charles Gagnon who had taken the hay; he told me that it was Meloche. I do not know whether my father has had trouble with Meloche about the