This evening in the Metropolitan Methodist church a rally of W. C. T. . workers will be held, which will be addressed by Mrs. A. O. Rutherford, the president of the W. C. T. U. in Canada. Since the death of Mrs. Yeomans, her predecessor as head of the W. C. T. U. novement in Canada, no white ribb worker is so widely known in this country as Mrs. Rutherford. Her work has not been confined to Canada, but she has been a prominent figure at all the great nternational gatherings of temperance workers on this continent and in the Old Land

Beginning as a girl in the old Bands of Hope in Brantford, Ontario, she has steadily advanced to her present position through all the subordinate offices of the great organization to which she belongs
