THE LOCAL GOVERNMENT : HOB. L. J. Tweedie came in from Chatham this afternoon and is at the Royal. He was to have a conference with Dr. Bayard, chairman, and Dr. Fisher, secretary of the Provincial Board of Health, on the small pox situat on in Westmoreland county, and also to meet Messra. Charles Burrel, of Weymouth, and B.-F. Pearson, of Halifax, relative to the provincial government's attitude toward the steel shipbuilding plant it is proposed to estal lish here, -Globe, 27.h.

SICKNESS AND DEATH :-- A Rogersville orrespondent of the Moncton Times writes : - "Rarely in the history of our village has the holiday season approached achid such general gloam. Sickness in some form prevails in almost every household, and not a few have been visited by death. Much sympathy is felt for Mr. and Mrs. O'Brien in the loss of their bright little boy, Everest, who died very suddenly on Wednesday evening, 19th in st., of membranous croup. The little fellow was playing about up to the day before his death, and the sadness of the blow, coming as it does so near this festive season, makes it seem more sad."

THE FARMERS of the country have long needed a good work on swine, a practic-al, concise and common-sense book without any padding or humbag about it. They have it in the form of No. 5 of The Biggle Books, called Biggle Swine Book. It is profasely illustrated with photographs direct from life of the different breeds of hoge, etc. . etc.,. Much attention is given to western and eastern practices, in the diseases of hogs, especially to cholers, to feeding, breading, butchering, and the carving of meats for home use and market. There are 144 pages printed on the best paper and bound hand-somely in cloth. Some breeders have thought it was not possible to make a good photograph of a hog, but the score or more of handsome engravings made directly from photographs will go far to dispel this illusion. All the leading breeds are shown and briefly discussed in the text. The price is 50 cents, by mail; address the pub-lishers, Wilmer Atkinson Co., Philadelphia.
