M. G. SCOVILL, AGENCY PELEE ISLAND GRAPES, ST. JOHN, N. B.
DEAR SIR—My family have received great benefits from the use of the PELEE ISLAND GRAPES during the past four years. It is the best tonic and sedative for debility, nervousness and weak lungs you have ever tried. It is much cheaper and pleasanter than medicine. I would not be without it in the house.
Yours, JAMES H. DAY, Day's Landing, Kings Co.

The following from a correspondent was received too late for publication in last week's issue of PROGRESS—Last Tuesday evening the residence of Mr. and Mrs. John Salmon was the scene of a very happy gathering, the object being to celebrate Mr. and Mrs. Salmon's silver wedding. The invitations, of which there were about one hundred and fifty, were issued by Mrs. Dunham and Mrs. George Salmon. The surprised hostess was the recipient of many costly and handsome presents among which was a silver tea service with gold lining, a very pretty card receive also laced with gold, and many other valuable and useful gifts presented by Mr. Porter, accompanied by the hearty congratulations of those present. Mr. Salmon replied with a few remarks in which he thanked his friends for the kind remembrances and advised all in the company who were not expecting a silver wedding soon to at least plan to have one in twenty five years, and hoped that Mrs. Salmon and himself would be spared to enjoy the continuation of the past twenty five years' happiness until their golden wedding. During the evening whilst other games were enjoyed. After a very nice supper at two o'clock Mr. Salmon and Mrs. Salmon sang several of their selections, Miss Clark and Mr. George Dunham played in their usual style, Miss Rogers and Mr. Salmon at the request of the guests read several selections. The party dispersed in the wee hours.
