ANIMAL RESCUE LEAGUE

The annual meeting of the S. P. C. Auxiliary (Animal Rescue League) was held at the Sign of the Green Lantern on Saturday evening.

It was moved and seconded that a note be sent to Mrs. Walker expressing the regret of the association at her retirement from office, together with flowers as a token of appreciation.

The following resolution was then brought before the meeting:

"Whereas, our attention has been directed to the conduct of affairs in the Municipal Home, and believing that women should be on the board of management of all institutions where women and children are inmates, we, the members of the Women's Auxiliary of the New Brunswick Society for the Prevention of Cruelty, resolve that it is highly desirable that two or more women be appointed members of the board of commissioners of the St. John Municipal Home, and that we act in co-operation with other women's organizations to that effect."

SALT ON GRAPEFRUIT

During the recent sugar shortage the market for Florida grapefruit was affected to a degree that led the growers there to suggest the use of salt instead of sugar on grapefruit. Tree-ripened grapefruit, such as begins to come from Florida in December, is often preferred with the Florida citrus at all. Honey, maple sugar, maple syrup, cane syrup, and corn syrup also make suitable sweetening for this fruit. To safeguard themselves against a possible sugar shortage next winter, the growers, through the Florida Citrus Exchange, will devote part of their advertising space to a campaign acquainting the public with the use of salt on grapefruit.

HAVE ROSY CHEEKS AND FEEL FRESH AS A DAISY—TRY THIS!

Says glass of hot water with phosphate before breakfast washes out poisons.

To see the tinge of healthy bloom in your face, to see your skin get clearer and clearer, to wake up without a headache, backache, coated tongue or a nasty breath, in fact to feel your best, day in and day out, just try inside-bathing every morning for one week.

Before breakfast each day, drink a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone-phosphate in it as a harmless means of washing from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour bile and toxins; thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach. The action of hot water and limestone-phosphate on an empty stomach is wonderfully invigorating. It cleans out all the sour fermentations, gases and acidity and gives one a splendid appetite for breakfast.

A quarter pound of limestone phosphate will cost very little at the drug store but is sufficient to demonstrate that. Those who are subject to constipation, bilious attacks, acid stomach, rheumatic twinges, also those whose skin is sallow and complexion pallid, are assured that one week of inside-bathing will have them both looking and feeling better in every way.

Far from disappearing pockets are "on" again bigger than ever. Women having discovered their usefulness will not readily give them up and it is unusual to see a skirt which does not boast of pockets of some unusual shape. The brightly colored separate skirt smartens one's appearance and is distinctive yet practical. With the sheer Georgette blouse they will be much worn this summer.

THE ROTARY CLUB
TWO MINUTE TALKS

Excellent Short Addresses After Luncheon Last Evening
—A Better Attendance
Campaign is Launched.

The Rotary Club met at Bond's restaurant at 6:15 o'clock last evening, with President T. H. Estabrooks in the chair. Following the luncheon two minute talks were given by Dr. L. D. Chipman, G. N. Hatfield, A. W. Wilson, H. L. Sandall, E. A. Schofield, A. V. Belding, E. C. Brown and Dr. J. H. Burton in which they expressed their views on the results of the Rotary Conference recently held. The matter of a more organized effort in social service in the community was brought up and also the getting after high finance and questionable business methods. E. A. Schofield stated that young men who had left comfortable homes and prosperous businesses to serve their country had some idea what real service is, and he suggested that to insure better results in the social work of the club, that ten members be appointed each month to be directly responsible for the performing of those obligations to which the club has pledged itself.

A. M. Belding stated that it was not the kind of inspiration which had been derived from the conference which counted but what results that inspiration led to. He suggested that the Rotary Club, Knights of Columbus and Y.M.C.I. form a central committee and get after City Hall to have something practical done towards fixing up the Rockwood Park Playground for the children.

The many friends of Chief Inspector W. D. Wilson will be sorry to learn that his son, Bruce, is still critically ill at his father's home, Fredericton.

LYRIC

The Crisis.

I can say at the outset that here is a picture few will want to miss. The story is a well known one, the picture splendidly produced, the characters satisfying, especially the historical ones like Lincoln, who is wonderfully like all his portraits. Lincoln is a person for whom we all have the highest admiration, and he appears in this story in the guise of a kindly providence bringing the lovers together after a time of seemingly hopeless estrangement. The scenes are laid in St. Louis and Charleston, and give opportunities for showing the armies of the day, the pretty quaint costumes of the women (it was a period of ruffled skirts and curled hair, velvet ribbon and black lace mitts), the strong feeling between the North and South dividing families and lovers. The story is human and full of interest. The out-of-door scenes are most beautiful. A costume ball is one of the peaceful pictures which will be enjoyed.

"A delightfully clean, wholesome picture" it has been described by one critic and this is certainly true. By those who know the cabinet meetings are said to be wonderfully reproduced. Tom Santachi, who used to amaze the public in his scenes with wild animals, plays Stephen Brice. Beattie Eytton is Virginia Carver. The well known Colin Campbell directed "The Crisis."

The Price Mark.

Intense is perhaps the word which will be thought of to describe "The Price Mark," in which Miss Dorothy Dalton is seen at the Imperial. The theme is the triangle one, two men in love with the one girl, the men are of strongly contrasted character, the artist, a man devoted to luxury and pleasure, with the usual result in his morals, the other a doctor who spends his time in doing good. In the very first of the story the scenes are laid in Egypt and we find the two friends following out the bent of their nature, the doctor coming to the rescue of his companion and saving him from the rage of a native.

Who's Who and What's What in the Picture World and on the Stage—Favorites and What They Say and Do.

In the later story Miss Dalton has many opportunities to display her undoubted talent as the situations are difficult indeed. It seems a pity that the part of the artist could not have been given to someone with a more attractive personality. Apart from this the cast is excellent and the picture well directed, with many charming scenes of interiors. There are several wonderful gowns worn by Miss Dalton during the picture which will be admired no doubt.

Following the feature was a Ford Canadian monthly, a very fine picture of fishing off the coast of Nova Scotia, where they catch 33,000 lbs. of mackerel, when the sight of a whale announces "School's Out." (Not original that joke, I borrowed it). This was followed by a series showing the launching of a Canadian ship built at Colingwood, Ontario, costing one million dollars. It was a most interesting picture and the Ford Company are to be congratulated upon this excellent series, so satisfying to Canadian eyes.

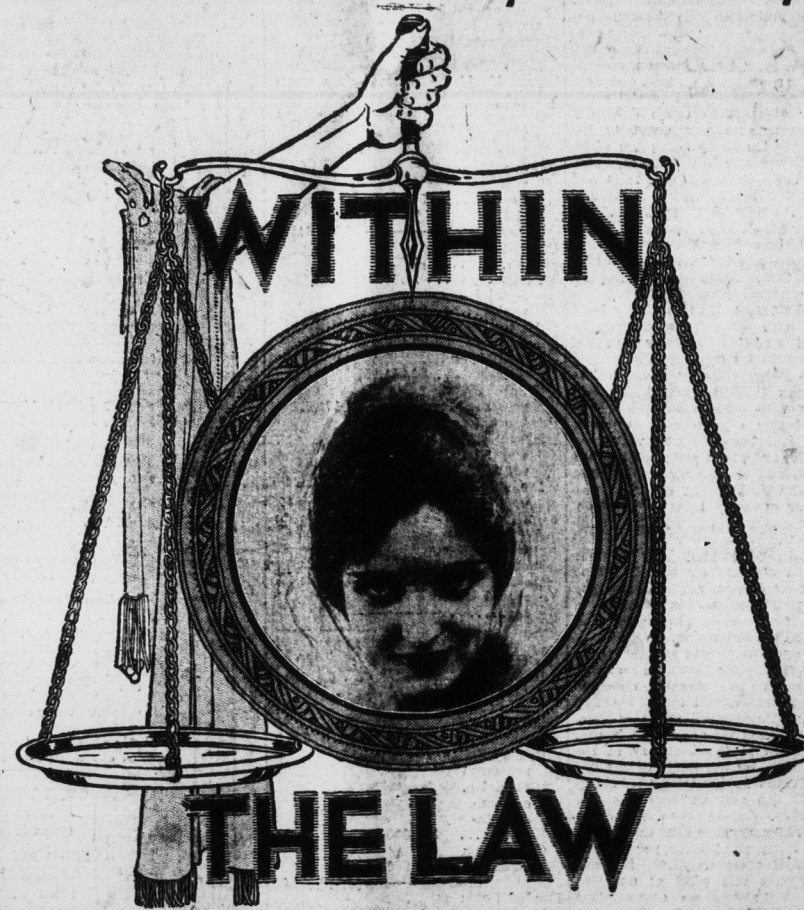

Another film which was enjoyed was a scenic, A Trip Through Bruges, and a beautiful flower one, Blossom Time in Normandy.

A Drew Comedy furnished the laughs for those who need them.

To the musical, the playing of Miss Mary Gailey, concert violinist, will give the greatest pleasure. All I could think of was Kipling's words describing the Banjo: "I can rip your very heart-strings out with these." If you love violin playing you usually love it very hard. Miss Gailey gives for her first number a Hungarian selection, voicing the wild nature of that race. Herze-Karl it is called. For the second number she plays The Long Long Trail, very beautifully.

Signor Guarino has two very lovely songs for this week, For All Eternity, by Moschieri, and Memories, by Van Alstyne. Both these musical numbers are greatly appreciated by the
