

Common Council Met In Committee

Stephens Construction Company Tender Accepted for City Road Paving—Shamrock Grounds Offered for $10,000.

The City Council yesterday morning in committee decided to accept the tender of the Stephens Construction Company for the paving of City Road and to leave the matter of paving Douglas Avenue and Prince William street over until a later date.

Frank Wade was granted an increase of sixteen cents a foot for laying about eight hundred feet of curbs.

A communication from D. Mullin, K. C., and Dr. J. Roy Campbell, K. C., offering to sell to the city the Old Shamrock grounds for $10,000 was laid on the table to be considered with the request of the North End Improvement League.

On motion of Commissioner Frink, the common clerk was instructed to prepare a recommendation for the paving of Lansdowne Avenue, under the Local Improvements Act.

As the business was not all finished adjournment was made until this morning at 11.30.

Local History Is Now Available

Records of N. B. Historical Society Have Been Catalogued and Cared for at the Dominion Archives Office—Other Improvements Made.

A representative of The Standard called at the Dominion Archives Office in the new Post Office Building yesterday to ascertain what developments are going on there. The books and records of the New Brunswick Historical Society heretofore scattered around in various places, have been gathered up, placed in book cases and catalogued. They are now available for the purpose of investigation. It is a great advantage to the Society to have a permanent home where its possessions can be taken care of. The Loyalist Muster Rolls, some 60 volumes, which were bound by the Society, have been sent to Ottawa for safe keeping but their contents are available to any student of history in the Archives Office.

The Society has been refunded by the Archives $200 because of binding them. The late J. H. Howe rescued these valuable papers when the Mechanics Institute was being demolished and preserved them for a number of years. For this service his widow has received a gratuity of $300 from the Archives.

The Ottawa officials are now busy in making a proper allotment of guns captured from the Germans, they are aiming to send to this Province the guns captured by the New Brunswick Loyalists—they will probably be forwarded here in the course of the summer. While it is a rule to forward all collections of historical matter from the local office to the Ottawa one, duplicates are retained of all copied documents, many volumes of these have already been made.

All official documents bearing on local history are gradually being gathered in for public information. The Standard was shown amongst other treasures a copy of what was probably the first almanac issued in New Brunswick the third year after the arrival of the Loyalists—1786. It contained with other information full lists of Provincial and County officials. It was printed by Christopher Sower, Queen's Printer.

Historic Bell May Be Removed

Ship Laborers' Time-Teller Growing Old—Unless Union Strengthens Structure Bell May Come Down.

The Ship Laborers' bell may be removed. At any rate, it is beginning to sag, and unless the Longshoremen's union see to it, the city authorities may have the bell and posts taken down. The city has just built new railings around the head of the Market Slip and attention has been called to the bell structure, which is not considered any too safe.

For many years this bell summoned the ship laborers to work, and advised them also when to knock off. The ship laborers' union employed one of their old members past active labor to ring the bell at turn-out and knock off times, and though there were plenty of whistles of mills and factories around the harbor it set the time for the ship laborers. For some time the practice of ringing it has been discontinued, but the bell has remained as a sort of monument to the past. The bell has been in its present position since the great fire, and was identified with the history of the Longshoremen's Union before that.

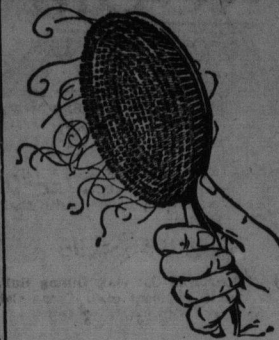

Times have changed since it was first erected to sound the beginning and ending of the work day of the men of the harbor. Gone are the fleets of sailing ships that once lay moored in the harbor, almost close enough to permit walking across their decks from St. John to Carleton.

BE SUSPICIOUS OF TENDER GUMS

Be suspicious of any tenderness or bleeding of the gums. This is usually the first stage of Pyorrhea—an insidious disease of the gums that destroys the teeth and undermines bodily health.

Gradually the gums become spongy. They inflame, then shrink, thus exposing the unannealed tooth-base to the ravages of decay. Tiny openings in the gums form gateways for disease germs to enter the system. Medical science has traced many ills to these infecting germs in the gums weakened by Pyorrhea.

They are now known to be a frequent cause of indigestion, anemia, rheumatism and other serious conditions.

So watch carefully for that first tenderness or bleeding of the gums. Try Forhan's immediately. It positively prevents Pyorrhea (Riggs' Disease) if used in time and used consistently.

And in preventing Pyorrhea—it guards against other ills.

Forhan's (For the Gums) cleans teeth scientifically as well. Brush your teeth with it. It keeps the teeth white and clean.

If gum-shrinkage has already set in, start using Forhan's and consult a dentist immediately for special treatment.
