

FREDERICTON DIOCESAN BRANCH OF THE WOMEN'S AUXILIARY

Nineteenth Annual Meeting Opened Yesterday in Trinity Church—Reports Received and Address by President—Mrs. G. C. P. McIntyre Presented With Life Membership and Pin.

The Fredericton Diocesan Branch of the Women's Auxiliary to the Church of England in Canada opened a three days' session in Trinity church school room yesterday morning. Preceding the business session Holy Communion was celebrated in Trinity at 8.30. Members of the Auxiliary from different parts of the province were in attendance and the services were conducted by Archdeacon Crowfoot, who was the celebrant and who was assisted by Canon Armstrong, Rural Dean, Sampson, Canon Daniel, Rev. W. P. Dunham and Rev. A. E. Gabriel.

The sermon to the members was preached by Rev. L. E. Fleming, of St. John's (Stones) church, who took for his text: "That Ye Might Walk Worthy of the Lord," St. Paul's prayer on behalf of the young church at Colossae.

There were 202 communicants and the offertory amounted to $71.14. The business session was opened at 11.30 with Mrs. Geo. F. Smith, diocesan president in the chair. The following diocesan officers are present during the sessions and present reports:

Honorary President, Mrs. Richardson.

Honorary Vice-President, Mrs. Walker.

President, Mrs. G. F. Smith.

1st Vice-President, Mrs. T. F. Robertson.

2nd Vice-President, Mrs. L. R. Harwood.

3rd Vice-President, Miss Halliwell.

Corresponding Secretary, Miss Clara Schofield.

Recording Secretary, Mrs. F. J. G. Knowlton.

Treasurer, Mrs. G. G. P. McIntyre.

Treasurer E. C. D. Fund, Mrs. Ray Campbell.

Dorcas Treasurer, Mrs. John M. Hay.

Convener Lit. Committee, Mrs. O'Connell.

Sec. Treas. of Leaders, Miss Muriel Fairweather.

Girls' Secretary, Miss Helen Richardson.

Junior Sec. Treas., Miss Portia MacKenzie.

Sec. Treasurer Little Helpers, Mrs. F. A. Foster.

Leadoff Editor, Miss Sadler.

Secretary Organizing Co., Mrs. W. D. Forster.

Secretary Prayer Partners, Miss Sadler.

Mrs. W. D. Forster welcomed the delegates in a most appropriate address; and Mrs. E. Alexander Campbell replied on behalf of the delegates.

Mrs. Smith thanked Miss Kate Murrell and the members of the hospitality committee for the satisfactory and definite arrangements made for the housing of the delegates.

Mrs. Smith was presented with a beautiful bunch of Mayflowers by the delegates.

Miss Clara Schofield, corresponding secretary, read letters of greeting from branches in Hamilton, Halifax, Montreal, Ottawa, Saint St. Marie, Kingston, Qu'Appelle, Keweenaw, Kootenay, Ruperts Land, Edmonton, New Westminster. Letters which came from all parts of the Dominion, emphasized the widespread interest of the W. A. Miss Elizabeth R. Scovill, Gagetown, secretary-treasurer of the Pickett Memorial Fund, who is now in California, and whose report will be presented in her absence, wrote regretting her inability to be present, and it was decided by a unanimous vote, in view of the excellence of Miss Scovill's work and her year of faithful service, to incorporate her report "as read" in the annual report.

Life memberships since last meeting, many of whose owners stood as the list was read, include Miss Ina

Mowry, Mrs. Paries, Mrs. G. A. Koberling, Mrs. Waterton, Mrs. J. E. Brooks, Mrs. J. R. Reid, Mrs. Walter Ormston, Mrs. Emma Johnson, Mrs. H. H. Seeley, Mrs. G. E. B. Keaton, Miss Violet Gregory, Miss Elsie Millidge, Miss Grace Estey, Miss M. Dole, Mrs. E. W. Blair, Miss Frances R. Cadwallader.

Lunches are served to delegates each day in Trinity school room, an efficient committee, of which Mrs. Stewart Skinner and Mrs. J. L. McAvity are the conveners. Trinity, St. James' and St. Mary's congregations were the hostesses yesterday, each church sending two ladies and four young girls to assist in the serving.

Mrs. H. Cody, from St. James' and Mrs. Wilson from St. Mary's presided at the tea tables.

The afternoon session opened with devotional exercises led by Rev. Canon Armstrong, who also delivered an address of welcome. This was followed by the address of the president, Mrs. G. F. Smith.

She dealt with the activities of the year and made special reference to the triennial meeting which was held in Montreal in October last, and the four milestones of the W. A. pointed out by Mrs. Hall, Dominion president, in her address at that gathering.

These milestones were: First, the organization of the W. A. in the year 1886. The second was the merging in the year 1902 of the domestic and foreign missionary societies into the larger organization of the Missionary Society of the Church of England in Canada and the W. A., which had been an auxiliary to the former society became the W. A. to the M. S. C. C. The third was the expansion of the work, after a quarter of a century, in 1911 by the adoption as the aim of the society work among women and children, including the support of all women missionaries and native female agents in the foreign field of mid-Japan, Honan in China, and the district of Tangra in India. The last great forward step was taken in 1919 when it was resolved in addition to the agreement concerning work in the foreign fields to include the same work in Canada, organized under the auspices of the M. S. C. C. such as work among the Indians, Eskimo and Orientals.

The recording secretary, Mrs. F. J. G. Knowlton, reported 85 senior societies, 26 girls, 33 junior and 39 Little Helpers, with a total membership of 4,848. Of this number, eight were Dominion life members and 229 were diocesan life members. Mrs. J. M. Hay presented the Dorcas report, and Miss Clara Schofield, the corresponding secretary's report.

Mrs. G. C. P. McIntyre, treasurer, was able to present a good report showing that there had been an increase in the gifts to the funds and the returns had been more prompt than in the past. The total receipts to the end of March were $7,026.35, and this, with the amount on hand at April 1, made a grand total of $10,307.06. The total disbursements were $7,542.54. Of this amount, $700.77, was given to diocesan missions; $1,091 to Canadian missions, and $1,275.31 to overseas missions. The balance on hand is $2,764.43. The united thank offering amounted to $1,143.21; the diocesan scholarship amount was $208.55; the life membership offering amounted to $102.00, and the amount helped materially the Pickett Memorial Fund. The general expenses amounted to $234.82, and 14 branches contributed to this amount.

At the conclusion of the reading of the report, Mrs. McIntyre was presented with a life membership certificate and pin from the members of the executive, in affectionate appreciation of her faithful and valuable work as treasurer. Mrs. McIntyre was taken completely by surprise by the gift, but made a most gracious reply, thanking them for the kind words of appreciation.

This is what the chief learned: Ehlers had moved from Hoboken to Woodbridge seven months ago, with his wife, Elizabeth, 35, his boy, Walter, 7, and the 3-year-old twins, Martin and Elizabeth. He lost the job with the rail company that had taken him to Woodbridge and got one with a grain elevator in Hoboken, living there and going to his home each week-end.

He had complained bitterly of the expense of two establishments; he had found the struggle to make ends meet a losing one, and he had grown more and more restless, more and more determined to destroy the family millstone that he said hung about his neck.

He came home in a bad humor Saturday. Mrs. Ehlers came down, and as she did so her husband raised the shotgun and fired. Mrs. Ehlers was killed instantly. Her husband wasted no further time on her. He slipped another shell into the gun and returned to the children's room.

They had been awakened by the shot and Walter was clambering out of bed. His father leveled the gun and fired again. The charge striking the boy in the abdomen. The second shot awakened the twins. One slept in a crib, the other in a little bed. Ehlers glanced at them and shoved a third shell into the gun. He tried to lock the barrel, but the shell had jammed, and it would not close. He rammed in vain. The gun was through. He ran into a field of high grass, meeting, he said, escape. He hid under a shell tree. Then he changed his mind, and went the three or four blocks to police headquarters.

Walter was still alive when County Physician W. E. Ogden arrived, but died soon after reaching Hackensack hospital.

Funerals

The funeral of Daniel McDade took place yesterday morning from his late residence, 183 Union street, to the Catholic cemetery for high mass of requiem by Rev. H. Ramago. Rev. A. P. Allen was deacon, Rev. W. McCarthy was sub-deacon, Rev. Wm. Duke was master of ceremonies, and His Lordship the Bishop gave the final absolution. The body was taken to St. Martin's for interment. Members of the Knights of Columbus attended the funeral. The pall-bearers were M. T. Morris, C. A. Owens, J. Crowley, J. Quinn, P. J. McInerney and E. Heaney. The funeral was attended by many and a large number of spiritual and floral offerings were sent. Among the latter was a beautiful wreath of pink and white roses from the Stedek Lumber Company.

The funeral of Charles A. Thorne was held yesterday afternoon from his late residence to Cedar street, Rev. Dr. D. Hutchinson conducted service. The funeral of Mrs. Ellen McGourty took place yesterday morning from her late residence, 183 Union street, to the Catholic cemetery for high mass of requiem by Rev. W. M. Duke. Interment was in the old Catholic cemetery.

Funerals

The funeral of Daniel McDade took place yesterday morning from his late residence, 183 Union street, to the Catholic cemetery for high mass of requiem by Rev. H. Ramago. Rev. A. P. Allen was deacon, Rev. W. McCarthy was sub-deacon, Rev. Wm. Duke was master of ceremonies, and His Lordship the Bishop gave the final absolution. The body was taken to St. Martin's for interment. Members of the Knights of Columbus attended the funeral. The pall-bearers were M. T. Morris, C. A. Owens, J. Crowley, J. Quinn, P. J. McInerney and E. Heaney. The funeral was attended by many and a large number of spiritual and floral offerings were sent. Among the latter was a beautiful wreath of pink and white roses from the Stedek Lumber Company.

The funeral of Charles A. Thorne was held yesterday afternoon from his late residence to Cedar street, Rev. Dr. D. Hutchinson conducted service. The funeral of Mrs. Ellen McGourty took place yesterday morning from her late residence, 183 Union street, to the Catholic cemetery for high mass of requiem by Rev. W. M. Duke. Interment was in the old Catholic cemetery.

Funerals

The funeral of Daniel McDade took place yesterday morning from his late residence, 183 Union street, to the Catholic cemetery for high mass of requiem by Rev. H. Ramago. Rev. A. P. Allen was deacon, Rev. W. McCarthy was sub-deacon, Rev. Wm. Duke was master of ceremonies, and His Lordship the Bishop gave the final absolution. The body was taken to St. Martin's for interment. Members of the Knights of Columbus attended the funeral. The pall-bearers were M. T. Morris, C. A. Owens, J. Crowley, J. Quinn, P. J. McInerney and E. Heaney. The funeral was attended by many and a large number of spiritual and floral offerings were sent. Among the latter was a beautiful wreath of pink and white roses from the Stedek Lumber Company.

The funeral of Charles A. Thorne was held yesterday afternoon from his late residence to Cedar street, Rev. Dr. D. Hutchinson conducted service. The funeral of Mrs. Ellen McGourty took place yesterday morning from her late residence, 183 Union street, to the Catholic cemetery for high mass of requiem by Rev. W. M. Duke. Interment was in the old Catholic cemetery.

Funerals

The funeral of Daniel McDade took place yesterday morning from his late residence, 183 Union street, to the Catholic cemetery for high mass of requiem by Rev. H. Ramago. Rev. A. P. Allen was deacon, Rev. W. McCarthy was sub-deacon, Rev. Wm. Duke was master of ceremonies, and His Lordship the Bishop gave the final absolution. The body was taken to St. Martin's for interment. Members of the Knights of Columbus attended the funeral. The pall-bearers were M. T. Morris, C. A. Owens, J. Crowley, J. Quinn, P. J. McInerney and E. Heaney. The funeral was attended by many and a large number of spiritual and floral offerings were sent. Among the latter was a beautiful wreath of pink and white roses from the Stedek Lumber Company.

The funeral of Charles A. Thorne was held yesterday afternoon from his late residence to Cedar street, Rev. Dr. D. Hutchinson conducted service. The funeral of Mrs. Ellen McGourty took place yesterday morning from her late residence, 183 Union street, to the Catholic cemetery for high mass of requiem by Rev. W. M. Duke. Interment was in the old Catholic cemetery.

Funerals

The funeral of Daniel McDade took place yesterday morning from his late residence, 183 Union street, to the Catholic cemetery for high mass of requiem by Rev. H. Ramago. Rev. A. P. Allen was deacon, Rev. W. McCarthy was sub-deacon, Rev. Wm. Duke was master of ceremonies, and His Lordship the Bishop gave the final absolution. The body was taken to St. Martin's for interment. Members of the Knights of Columbus attended the funeral. The pall-bearers were M. T. Morris, C. A. Owens, J. Crowley, J. Quinn, P. J. McInerney and E. Heaney. The funeral was attended by many and a large number of spiritual and floral offerings were sent. Among the latter was a beautiful wreath of pink and white roses from the Stedek Lumber Company.

The funeral of Charles A. Thorne was held yesterday afternoon from his late residence to Cedar street, Rev. Dr. D. Hutchinson conducted service. The funeral of Mrs. Ellen McGourty took place yesterday morning from her late residence, 183 Union street, to the Catholic cemetery for high mass of requiem by Rev. W. M. Duke. Interment was in the old Catholic cemetery.

Funerals

The funeral of Daniel McDade took place yesterday morning from his late residence, 183 Union street, to the Catholic cemetery for high mass of requiem by Rev. H. Ramago. Rev. A. P. Allen was deacon, Rev. W. McCarthy was sub-deacon, Rev. Wm. Duke was master of ceremonies, and His Lordship the Bishop gave the final absolution. The body was taken to St. Martin's for interment. Members of the Knights of Columbus attended the funeral. The pall-bearers were M. T. Morris, C. A. Owens, J. Crowley, J. Quinn, P. J. McInerney and E. Heaney. The funeral was attended by many and a large number of spiritual and floral offerings were sent. Among the latter was a beautiful wreath of pink and white roses from the Stedek Lumber Company.

The funeral of Charles A. Thorne was held yesterday afternoon from his late residence to Cedar street, Rev. Dr. D. Hutchinson conducted service. The funeral of Mrs. Ellen McGourty took place yesterday morning from her late residence, 183 Union street, to the Catholic cemetery for high mass of requiem by Rev. W. M. Duke. Interment was in the old Catholic cemetery.

Funerals

The funeral of Daniel McDade took place yesterday morning from his late residence, 183 Union street, to the Catholic cemetery for high mass of requiem by Rev. H. Ramago. Rev. A. P. Allen was deacon, Rev. W. McCarthy was sub-deacon, Rev. Wm. Duke was master of ceremonies, and His Lordship the Bishop gave the final absolution. The body was taken to St. Martin's for interment. Members of the Knights of Columbus attended the funeral. The pall-bearers were M. T. Morris, C. A. Owens, J. Crowley, J. Quinn, P. J. McInerney and E. Heaney. The funeral was attended by many and a large number of spiritual and floral offerings were sent. Among the latter was a beautiful wreath of pink and white roses from the Stedek Lumber Company.

The funeral of Charles A. Thorne was held yesterday afternoon from his late residence to Cedar street, Rev. Dr. D. Hutchinson conducted service. The funeral of Mrs. Ellen McGourty took place yesterday morning from her late residence, 183 Union street, to the Catholic cemetery for high mass of requiem by Rev. W. M. Duke. Interment was in the old Catholic cemetery.

Funerals

The funeral of Daniel McDade took place yesterday morning from his late residence, 183 Union street, to the Catholic cemetery for high mass of requiem by Rev. H. Ramago. Rev. A. P. Allen was deacon, Rev. W. McCarthy was sub-deacon, Rev. Wm. Duke was master of ceremonies, and His Lordship the Bishop gave the final absolution. The body was taken to St. Martin's for interment. Members of the Knights of Columbus attended the funeral. The pall-bearers were M. T. Morris, C. A. Owens, J. Crowley, J. Quinn, P. J. McInerney and E. Heaney. The funeral was attended by many and a large number of spiritual and floral offerings were sent. Among the latter was a beautiful wreath of pink and white roses from the Stedek Lumber Company.

The funeral of Charles A. Thorne was held yesterday afternoon from his late residence to Cedar street, Rev. Dr. D. Hutchinson conducted service. The funeral of Mrs. Ellen McGourty took place yesterday morning from her late residence, 183 Union street, to the Catholic cemetery for high mass of requiem by Rev. W. M. Duke. Interment was in the old Catholic cemetery.

"77" FOR COLDS

For Grip, Influenza, Catarrh, Pains and Soreness in the Head and Chest, Cough, Sore Throat, General Prostration and Fever.

To get the best results take "Seventy-seven" at the first sign of a cold, the first sneeze or shiver.

If you wait till your bones begin to ache, it may take longer.

Doctor's Book in English, French, Spanish, Portuguese or German—mailed free.

"77" at all Drug and Country Stores.

Hampshire House, Medicine Co., 146 William Street, New York.

tion and remembrance, which would always be treasured by her.

Miss Helen Richardson presented the report of the Girls' work, and this was a most encouraging document. Miss Sadler, leader editor, read her report.

The closing exercise of the afternoon was the junior half hour. Under the leadership of Miss Portia MacKenzie a pageant showing the work in the different dioceses of Canada. Each diocese was represented by girls in costume.

Evening Session.

At 7.30 in the evening a girls' conference was held, under the leadership of Miss Richardson. This was the largest and most enthusiastic ever held in the diocese. Miss Annie Hipwell read a paper on "Parochial Secretary's Duties." Miss Fitzgerald read on "How to Keep in Touch With Absent Members" and Miss Crawley gave the report of the Trinity Girls' activities for the winter.

About nine o'clock a reception for the visitors was held in the school room. They were welcomed at the door by Mrs. G. F. Smith, president of the auxiliary. The programme consisted of piano solos by J. P. Brown, organist of the church, and Miss Steves, violin solo by Miss Barker, solos by Mrs. Harrison and Miss Kee, an address by Miss Crawford. Refreshments were served by a committee of the Young Women's Guild, under whose auspices the reception was held.

Jamned Gun Saves

Twins' Lives From

Murderous Father

Mother and Eldest Son Had

Been Previously Shot Dead.

Woodbridge, N. J., April 25.—Martin Ehlers killed his wife, Elizabeth, on Saturday night in their home here, reloaded his single-barrelled shotgun and fired at his seven-year-old son, Walter, inflicting a wound from which the boy died, and was prevented from reaching the door, leaving him a boy and a girl, only by the fact that the ejector failed to work and he could not get the empty shell out of the gun.

After the husband had stepped over the body of his wife, which lay on the stairs, and strode across lots to the home of A. M. Kotscheko, chief of police.

"Give me a pack of cigarettes," called Ehlers when the chief appeared at an upper window in response to his repeated knocks at the door, "and I'll tell you a good story—I just killed my wife and kid."

Chief Kotscheko, dazed with sleep and by the remarkable statement, looked by the man on his front porch, looked incredulous.

"If you don't believe me," persisted Ehlers, "go down to the house and see."

This is what the chief learned: Ehlers had moved from Hoboken to Woodbridge seven months ago, with his wife, Elizabeth, 35, his boy, Walter, 7, and the 3-year-old twins, Martin and Elizabeth. He lost the job with the rail company that had taken him to Woodbridge and got one with a grain elevator in Hoboken, living there and going to his home each week-end.

He had complained bitterly of the expense of two establishments; he had found the struggle to make ends meet a losing one, and he had grown more and more restless, more and more determined to destroy the family millstone that he said hung about his neck.

He came home in a bad humor Saturday. Mrs. Ehlers came down, and as she did so her husband raised the shotgun and fired. Mrs. Ehlers was killed instantly. Her husband wasted no further time on her. He slipped another shell into the gun and returned to the children's room.

They had been awakened by the shot and Walter was clambering out of bed. His father leveled the gun and fired again. The charge striking the boy in the abdomen. The second shot awakened the twins. One slept in a crib, the other in a little bed. Ehlers glanced at them and shoved a third shell into the gun. He tried to lock the barrel, but the shell had jammed, and it would not close. He rammed in vain. The gun was through. He ran into a field of high grass, meeting, he said, escape. He hid under a shell tree. Then he changed his mind, and went the three or four blocks to police headquarters.

Walter was still alive when County Physician W. E. Ogden arrived, but died soon after reaching Hackensack hospital.

Funerals

The funeral of Daniel McDade took place yesterday morning from his late residence, 183 Union street, to the Catholic cemetery for high mass of requiem by Rev. H. Ramago. Rev. A. P. Allen was deacon, Rev. W. McCarthy was sub-deacon, Rev. Wm. Duke was master of ceremonies, and His Lordship the Bishop gave the final absolution. The body was taken to St. Martin's for interment. Members of the Knights of Columbus attended the funeral. The pall-bearers were M. T. Morris, C. A. Owens, J. Crowley, J. Quinn, P. J. McInerney and E. Heaney. The funeral was attended by many and a large number of spiritual and floral offerings were sent. Among the latter was a beautiful wreath of pink and white roses from the Stedek Lumber Company.

The funeral of Charles A. Thorne was held yesterday afternoon from his late residence to Cedar street, Rev. Dr. D. Hutchinson conducted service. The funeral of Mrs. Ellen McGourty took place yesterday morning from her late residence, 183 Union street, to the Catholic cemetery for high mass of requiem by Rev. W. M. Duke. Interment was in the old Catholic cemetery.

Funerals

The funeral of Daniel McDade took place yesterday morning from his late residence, 183 Union street, to the Catholic cemetery for high mass of requiem by Rev. H. Ramago. Rev. A. P. Allen was deacon, Rev. W. McCarthy was sub-deacon, Rev. Wm. Duke was master of ceremonies, and His Lordship the Bishop gave the final absolution. The body was taken to St. Martin's for interment. Members of the Knights of Columbus attended the funeral. The pall-bearers were M. T. Morris, C. A. Owens, J. Crowley, J. Quinn, P. J. McInerney and E. Heaney. The funeral was attended by many and a large number of spiritual and floral offerings were sent. Among the latter was a beautiful wreath of pink and white roses from the Stedek Lumber Company.

The funeral of Charles A. Thorne was held yesterday afternoon from his late residence to Cedar street, Rev. Dr. D. Hutchinson conducted service. The funeral of Mrs. Ellen McGourty took place yesterday morning from her late residence, 183 Union street, to the Catholic cemetery for high mass of requiem by Rev. W. M. Duke. Interment was in the old Catholic cemetery.

Funerals

The funeral of Daniel McDade took place yesterday morning from his late residence, 183 Union street, to the Catholic cemetery for high mass of requiem by Rev. H. Ramago. Rev. A. P. Allen was deacon, Rev. W. McCarthy was sub-deacon, Rev. Wm. Duke was master of ceremonies, and His Lordship the Bishop gave the final absolution. The body was taken to St. Martin's for interment. Members of the Knights of Columbus attended the funeral. The pall-bearers were M. T. Morris, C. A. Owens, J. Crowley, J. Quinn, P. J. McInerney and E. Heaney. The funeral was attended by many and a large number of spiritual and floral offerings were sent. Among the latter was a beautiful wreath of pink and white roses from the Stedek Lumber Company.

The funeral of Charles A. Thorne was held yesterday afternoon from his late residence to Cedar street, Rev. Dr. D. Hutchinson conducted service. The funeral of Mrs. Ellen McGourty took place yesterday morning from her late residence, 183 Union street, to the Catholic cemetery for high mass of requiem by Rev. W. M. Duke. Interment was in the old Catholic cemetery.

Funerals

The funeral of Daniel McDade took place yesterday morning from his late residence, 183 Union street, to the Catholic cemetery for high mass of requiem by Rev. H. Ramago. Rev. A. P. Allen was deacon, Rev. W. McCarthy was sub-deacon, Rev. Wm. Duke was master of ceremonies, and His Lordship the Bishop gave the final absolution. The body was taken to St. Martin's for interment. Members of the Knights of Columbus attended the funeral. The pall-bearers were M. T. Morris, C. A. Owens, J. Crowley, J. Quinn, P. J. McInerney and E. Heaney. The funeral was attended by many and a large number of spiritual and floral offerings were sent. Among the latter was a beautiful wreath of pink and white roses from the Stedek Lumber Company.

The funeral of Charles A. Thorne was held yesterday afternoon from his late residence to Cedar street, Rev. Dr. D. Hutchinson conducted service. The funeral of Mrs. Ellen McGourty took place yesterday morning from her late residence, 183 Union street, to the Catholic cemetery for high mass of requiem by Rev. W. M. Duke. Interment was in the old Catholic cemetery.

Funerals

The funeral of Daniel McDade took place yesterday morning from his late residence, 183 Union street, to the Catholic cemetery for high mass of requiem by Rev. H. Ramago. Rev. A. P. Allen was deacon, Rev. W. McCarthy was sub-deacon, Rev. Wm. Duke was master of ceremonies, and His Lordship the Bishop gave the final absolution. The body was taken to St. Martin's for interment. Members of the Knights of Columbus attended the funeral. The pall-bearers were M. T. Morris, C. A. Owens, J. Crowley, J. Quinn, P. J. McInerney and E. Heaney. The funeral was attended by many and a large number of spiritual and floral offerings were sent. Among the latter was a beautiful wreath of pink and white roses from the Stedek Lumber Company.

The funeral of Charles A. Thorne was held yesterday afternoon from his late residence to Cedar street, Rev. Dr. D. Hutchinson conducted service. The funeral of Mrs. Ellen McGourty took place yesterday morning from her late residence, 183 Union street, to the Catholic cemetery for high mass of requiem by Rev. W. M. Duke. Interment was in the old Catholic cemetery.

Funerals

The funeral of Daniel McDade took place yesterday morning from his late residence, 183 Union street, to the Catholic cemetery for high mass of requiem by Rev. H. Ramago. Rev. A. P. Allen was deacon, Rev. W. McCarthy was sub-deacon, Rev. Wm. Duke was master of ceremonies, and His Lordship the Bishop gave the final absolution. The body was taken to St. Martin's for interment. Members of the Knights of Columbus attended the funeral. The pall-bearers were M. T. Morris, C. A. Owens, J. Crowley, J. Quinn, P. J. McInerney and E. Heaney. The funeral was attended by many and a large number of spiritual and floral offerings were sent. Among the latter was a beautiful wreath of pink and white roses from the Stedek Lumber Company.

The funeral of Charles A. Thorne was held yesterday afternoon from his late residence to Cedar street, Rev. Dr. D. Hutchinson conducted service. The funeral of Mrs. Ellen McGourty took place yesterday morning from her late residence, 183 Union street, to the Catholic cemetery for high mass of requiem by Rev. W. M. Duke. Interment was in the old Catholic cemetery.

Funerals

The funeral of Daniel McDade took place yesterday morning from his late residence, 183 Union street, to the Catholic cemetery for high mass of requiem by Rev. H. Ramago. Rev. A. P. Allen was deacon, Rev. W. McCarthy was sub-deacon, Rev. Wm. Duke was master of ceremonies, and His Lordship the Bishop gave the final absolution. The body was taken to St. Martin's for interment. Members of the Knights of Columbus attended the funeral. The pall-bearers were M. T. Morris, C. A. Owens, J. Crowley, J. Quinn, P. J. McInerney and E. Heaney. The funeral was attended by many and a large number of spiritual and floral offerings were sent. Among the latter was a beautiful wreath of pink and white roses from the Stedek Lumber Company.

The funeral of Charles A. Thorne was held yesterday afternoon from his late residence to Cedar street, Rev. Dr. D. Hutchinson conducted service. The funeral of Mrs. Ellen McGourty took place yesterday morning from her late residence, 183 Union street, to the Catholic cemetery for high mass of requiem by Rev. W. M. Duke. Interment was in the old Catholic cemetery.

Funerals

The funeral of Daniel McDade took place yesterday morning from his late residence, 183 Union street, to the Catholic cemetery for high mass of requiem by Rev. H. Ramago. Rev. A. P. Allen was deacon, Rev. W. McCarthy was sub-deacon, Rev. Wm. Duke was master of ceremonies, and His Lordship the Bishop gave the final absolution. The body was taken to St. Martin's for interment. Members of the Knights of Columbus attended the funeral. The pall-bearers were M. T. Morris, C. A. Owens, J. Crowley, J. Quinn, P. J. McInerney and E. Heaney. The funeral was attended by many and a large number of spiritual and floral offerings were sent. Among the latter was a beautiful wreath of pink and white roses from the Stedek Lumber Company.

The funeral of Charles A. Thorne was held yesterday afternoon from his late residence to Cedar street, Rev. Dr. D. Hutchinson conducted service. The funeral of Mrs. Ellen McGourty took place yesterday morning from her late residence, 183 Union street, to the Catholic cemetery for high mass of requiem by Rev. W. M. Duke. Interment was in the old Catholic cemetery.

Funerals

The funeral of Daniel McDade took place yesterday morning from his late residence, 183 Union street, to the Catholic cemetery for high mass of requiem by Rev. H. Ramago. Rev. A. P. Allen was deacon, Rev. W. McCarthy was sub-deacon, Rev. Wm. Duke was master of ceremonies, and His Lordship the Bishop gave the final absolution. The body was taken to St. Martin's for interment. Members of the Knights of Columbus attended the funeral. The pall-bearers were M. T. Morris, C. A. Owens, J. Crowley, J. Quinn, P. J. McInerney and E. Heaney. The funeral was attended by many and a large number of spiritual and floral offerings were sent. Among the latter was a beautiful wreath of pink and white roses from the Stedek Lumber Company.

The funeral of Charles A. Thorne was held yesterday afternoon from his late residence to Cedar street, Rev. Dr. D. Hutchinson conducted service. The funeral of Mrs. Ellen McGourty took place yesterday morning from her late residence, 183 Union street, to the Catholic cemetery for high mass of requiem by Rev. W. M. Duke. Interment was in the old Catholic cemetery.

Funerals

The funeral of Daniel McDade took place yesterday morning from his late residence, 183 Union street, to the Catholic cemetery for high mass of requiem by Rev. H. Ramago. Rev. A. P. Allen was deacon, Rev. W. McCarthy was sub-deacon, Rev. Wm. Duke was master of ceremonies, and His Lordship the Bishop gave the final absolution. The body was taken to St. Martin's for interment. Members of the Knights of Columbus attended the funeral. The pall-bearers were M. T. Morris, C. A. Owens, J.