

TRANSFERENCE OF STRATHROY CONGREGATION.

The Synod then took up the application of the Sarnia Presbytery, remitted by the General Assembly, asking that the Strathroy Congregation, be transferred from London Presbytery, to that of Sarnia.

Papers in the case having been read, parties were called and heard :—Messrs. Thompson and Cuthbertson for the Sarnia Presbytery, Mr. Henderson for the London Presbytery, and Mr. MacAdam and Mr. Gordon for the Strathroy Congregation.

Mr. Laing, then moved, seconded by Dr. Cochrane, that the prayer of the petition of the Presbytery of Sarnia be granted, and the Strathroy Congregation united to the Sarnia Presbytery. The motion was carried.

Mr. McAdam and Mr. Gordon craved leave to dissent and protest from the judgment of the Synod, with a view to complain to the ensuing General Assembly.

The hour of adjournment having arrived, the Synod adjourned to meet again at half-past two p. m., and was closed by the Moderator pronouncing the benediction.
