

Article VI.—Fine for not keeping Arms, &c., in good repair.

Every member of the Corps shall keep his arms, uniform, and accoutrements clean and in good repair, and his ammunition in serviceable order. Any member neglecting so to do shall be liable to a fine not exceeding five dollars, to be imposed by the Commanding Officer on the report of the Inspecting Officer; and any repairs necessary may be ordered at the expense of the offending member.

Article VII.—Parades and Roll Call.

Parades shall take place at such times and places as the Commanding Officer shall direct; at each parade the Roll shall be called by a Non-Commissioned Officer, and a return of the names of the absent members shall be made to the Commanding Officer by such Non-Commissioned Officer.

Article VIII.—Commanding Officer's Parades.

No member of the Corps shall be absent from Commanding Officer's Parade without leave.

Article IX.—Courts of Enquiry.

All charges preferred against members of the Corps shall be made in writing, and addressed to the Commanding Officer, and shall be investigated by a Court of Enquiry, consisting of one Volunteer Officer and four Non-Commissioned Officers or Privates, to be nominated by the Commanding Officer. The Commanding Officer shall not sit on a Court of Enquiry.

Article X.—Mode of conducting Courts of Enquiry.

The Officer on the Court of Enquiry shall be
