No. 22.]

BILL.

[1863.

An Act to amend Chapter 26 of the Consolidated Statutes for Lower Canada, in so far as it relates to rivers and streams.

WHEREAS it is necessary, for the promotion of agricultural inter- Preamble. ests, to make further provisions enabling proprietors of low and swampy lands in the vicinity of streams and unnavigable rivers, and which are insufficient for the drainage of such lands, to require of and to authorize the authorities having jurisdiction in these matters to verbalise such streams rnd rivers, Therefore, Her Majesty, &c., enacts as follows :--

Whenever it becomes necessary to deepen or enlarge any stream inspectors to or unnavigable river for the drainage of lands subject to inundation in regulatework consequence of the bad state or insufficiency of such streams and rivers, to be done.
 or any part thereof, the necessary works to be done may be regulated, on the requisition of one of the parties interested, by two inspectors having no interest therein, residing in the parish or township in which the work required is to be done.

2. If there are no disinterested Inspectors in such parish or township, Inspectors the works shall, in such case, be regulated by two disinterested Inspectors from neighboring parish or township, and they shall so act &c., to be whenever their services are required, in accordance with the provisions called in, in of the Act above cited.

3. Any person interested in such deepening or enlarging, or in the In case the distribution of the works necessary for the maintenance in order of any stream passes
20 such stream or river, may, if it passes through two or more townships or more paror parishes, apply to disinterested Inspectors in each parish or township ishes, &c. to regulate and determine, by a proces-verbal, the work to be done and the parties by whom it is to be done.

4. If the Inspectors are equally divided in opinion on the matter at A third In-25 issue, they shall call in another disinterested Inspector, and if they be called incannot agree on the choice of such other Inspector, he shall be appointed by a Justice of the Peace upon the requisition of one of the parties interested, or of one of the Inspectors, and the decision of the majority shall be final.

36

5. The proceedings shall be the same as those prescribed for the Form of proestablishment of a watercourse in which but one parish or township is ceeding. interested, and the proces-verbal shall be homologated in the same manner.