ness and a permission to allow his passengers to leave the vessel, and a receipt for the duties payable by him under the provisions of this Act, have been given to him by the collector of customs; and every master of a vessel who violates the provisions of this section, shall incur a penalty not exceeding one hundred dollars and not less than twenty dollars for every passenger leaving the same, contrary to the provisions of this Act. 32-33 V., c. 10, s. 5, part;—35 V., c. 28, s. 14.

Penalty for carrying passengers not entered on list.

11. The master of any vessel sailing from a port in Her Majesty's dominions, who embarks passengers after the vessel has been cleared and examined by the proper officer at the port of departure and who does not deliver reports of such additional passengers to some officer to whom by law the same ought to be delivered shall, for every passenger not included in the list of passengers delivered to the collector of customs at the port of departure, or at the port where such additional passenger was embarked, or at the port at which such vessel touched after the embarkation of such passenger, pay to the collector of customs at the port in Canada at which the said vessel is first entered, the sum of eight dollars for each passenger so embarked as aforesaid and not included in one of the said lists, in addition to the duty payable as aforesaid, and at the same time and under the same penalties. 32-33 V., c. 10, s. 4.

Passenger may leave the vessel before arrival at port of destination.

Proceedings in such case.

Penalty for violation.

12. Nothing in this Act shall prevent the master of any vessel from permitting any passenger to leave the vessel at the request of such passenger before the arrival of the vessel at her final port of destination; but in every such case, the name of the passenger so leaving shall be entered in the manifest on the list of immigrants made out at the time of the clearing of the vessel from the United Kingdom or other part of Europe as aforesaid, and shall be certified under the signature of the passenger so leaving the vessel; and if the number of passengers remaining on board on the arrival of the vessel at her final port of destination does not correspond with that mentioned in such manifest, after deducting the number who have so left the vessel, the master thereof shall incur a penalty of twenty dollars for each passenger not found on board or entered on the manifest as having left the vessel as aforesaid. 32-33 V., c. 10, s. 6.

Pilot to report contravention of Act.

Penalty for neglect.

13. Every pilot who has had charge of any vessel having passengers on board, and knows that any passenger has been permitted to leave the vessel contrary to the provisions of this Act, and who does not within twenty-four hours after the arrival of such vessel in the harbour to which he engaged to pilot her, inform the collector of customs thereat, that a passenger or passengers has or have been so permitted to leave the vessel, shall incur a penalty not exceeding five dollars for every passenger with regard to whom he has willfully neglected to give such information. 32-33 V., c. 10, s. 7.
