Ottawa, December 15, 1914.

Mr. Aaron Prussian,
117 Devon Street,
Roxbury, Mass.

Dear Sir:

I have your letter of the 10th instant, in which you offer your services as investigator in connection with the investigation of industrial relations which I have undertaken to direct for the Rockefeller Foundation.

As it will probably be some months before I shall have my plans sufficiently matured to say just what may be necessary in the way of assistance, it is not possible for me to hold out any promise of possible employment at the present time. I shall, however, retain your communication for purposes of reference, and in the event of finding it desirable to secure your services later on, shall have pleasure in communicating with you. Meanwhile, allow me to thank you for giving me the particulars with reference to your work and yourself which your letter contains.

Yours very truly,

W. L. MACKENZIE KING
