

A. Yes, sir.

Q. You walked across - part of the way across and you saw McIntyre at the left front corner of the chevrolet car?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. You were, at this time, at the crown of the road?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. The crown of the road is in the middle of the road?

A. Yes.

Q. So that from you to the righthand side of the street - the righthand curb of the street, looking south, was about 15 feet.

A. Yes, sir.

Q. You were approximately opposite the chevrolet car in the middle of the road.

A. Yes, sir.

Q. And saw the car coming up that street, or side of the street, opposite the chevrolet car? McIntyre at the left front fender. So between you and the curb there is one chevrolet car and the Ford staff car passed between you and the chevrolet car. Pretty tight squeeze.

A. Yes,

Q. You didn't step back?

A. Not that I know of.

Q. When you were going up the street prior to this, is it not a fact that you were hollering and shouting across the street, back and forth?

A. No, sir.

Q. You were hollering and shouting.

A. Yes.

Q. When you were walking up the street you were, everyone of you were trying to pick up a girl in a drunken fashion.

A. Yes, sir. I would not say in a drunken fashion.

Q. Walking up the street hollering and shouting and staggering in a drunken fashion.

A. No, sir. We were not under the influence of liquor.

Q. You stated you saw the ford staff car; there was an impact; that it hit the rear of the chevrolet car. Then if McIntyre
