

ILLUSTRATIONS

	PAGE
"I am not here as an enemy. I merely wish to be heard" . . . . .	Frontispiece
I caught a glimpse of Jean Denslow, standing white-faced, holding a lamp . . . . .	182
"I don't in the least want to like you," Jean replied, "but I do" . . . . .	282
"Which shall it be, Daniels, peace or war?" . . . . .	318