

The same apostle also says: "God . . . hath in these last days spoken unto us by His Son, Whom He hath appointed heir of all things, by Whom also He made the worlds; Who being the brightness of His glory, and the express image of His person, and upholding all things by the Word of His power, when He had by Himself purged our sins, sat down on the right hand of the Majesty on high." Hebrews 1:1-3.

Jesus, the Son of God, and our Redeemer, created the heavens and the earth, as well as the other planets of the universe, and all they contain. He not only created all things, but He sustains, or holds together, all that He has created. One day follows another, the seasons come and go, because, by the Word of His power, all things consist and remain. It is the Word of His power that keeps the earth, the sun, the moon, and the stars in their places.

Such a Saviour may well be trusted with our all.

We may rest in Him as in a faithful Creator, knowing that "there hath not failed one word of all

His good promise" (1 Kings 8:56) to the children of men; and that, accepting His Word, we too shall be upheld, even as "all things are upheld by the Word of His power."

'Upholding
all things by the Word of
His power.'
