

CONTENTS

vii

CHAPTER VI

THE SPOKESMEN OF MILITANT GERMANY

Bernhardi—The Four Groups of the Defenders of Germany—	PAGE
Upholders of the Doctrine of Defence—Imperialists—Preventionists—Preventive Imperialists—The German Chauvinists—The Crown Prince—The Other "August Personages"—Mercenary Armies; Universal Service—
Policy of Brag—The Chauvinists and the German Nation—Otfried Nippold; "German Chauvinism"—
The League for Promoting International Understanding—Pan-Germany; All Germany—Stages in the Political Force—Anthology from German Chauvinistic Literature before the War—The Pan-German Union—Herr von the War—After the Outbreak of War—Herr von mann and the Pan-Germans—Pan-German War Aims—Pan-Germans, Liberals, Social-Democrats—The Liberal Press before the War and the Chauvinists—"Spiritual Regeneration"—The Law of Adaptation—Heroes—Psychology of the Free-Lance—Houston Stewart Chamberlain—Germany, the only Shield of Peace—Who is Responsible for the War?—Chamberlain as Historian—
Russia's Spirit of Compliance, a Question of Detail—
Chamberlain on the German and English Peoples—Chamberlain's War-Aims—"Degenerate Sons" of the Fatherland—Preventive Imperialists—Gebsattel—
Harden—Paul Rohrbach—The Agrarian Patriots—
Prussian and Russian Reaction—Rohrbach on the War Path—War, the Father of all Things—The Fear of Peace—Germany's World-Domination—The Struggle for the "Place in the Sun"—The Three Preliminary Questions—The Main Question: Did we Stand in the Sun or the Shadow?—The "Standard of Life" in Germany—
Concluding Observation.	275-444