

LADY TAYLOR

TAYLOR, LADY, born in Hamilton, Ontario ; married Thomas Wardlaw Taylor, afterwards Chief Justice of Manitoba. Lady Taylor was for ten years First Directress of the Children's Home in Winnipeg, organized the Aberdeen Society, and was President until 1899. Was connected with the Local Council of Women at Winnipeg from its inception, and was President 1896-1899. In the autumn of that year succeeded Lady Aberdeen as President of the National Council of Women of Canada, and held office until 1902.

MISS CARRIE M. DERICK

DERICK, MISS CARRIE M., Assistant Professor of Botany, McGill University, Montreal, eldest daughter of the late F. U. Derick, Esq., a descendant of United Empire Loyalists. Graduated from McGill University. Studied and carried on research work at the Marine Biological Laboratory; at the Royal College of Science, London, Eng.; and at the University of Bonn, Germany. Miss Derick is a Vice-President of the National Council of Women of Canada; Chairman of the Montreal Local Council.

DENNIS, MRS., wife of William Dennis, editor and proprietor of The Halifax Herald. President of Halifax Local Council of Women for five years. Mrs. Dennis has been especially active in work for the feeble-minded, the children's hospital, home gardens for school children, supervised playgrounds, industrial education for girls, the establishment of a welcome hostel for girls, and the anti-tuberculosis campaign. Assisted in organizing the Victorian Order of Nurses and has been President of the Committee for six years; is an active member of the Board of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the Presbyterian Church (Eastern Section).

MRS. WILLIAM DENNIS

DAY, MRS. ROBERT SCOTT, has been actively engaged in public work since 1889 when she was instrumental in organizing the first benevolent society in Kimberley, South Africa. Coming to Canada, she was appointed first Vice-President of Women's Local Council of Victoria; afterwards Vice-President for British Columbia; originator and organizer of the first Alexandra Club in Victoria.

MRS. R. S. DAY