

36. The returning officer, on the request of any elector entitled to vote at one of the polling stations, who is appointed deputy returning officer, or who is appointed to attend as agent at a polling station other than the one where he is entitled to vote, shall give to such elector a certificate that such elector is entitled to vote at such polling of votes at the polling station where such elector is stationed during the polling day.

Deputy
returning officer or agent entitled to vote.

2. On the production of such certificate such elector shall have the right to vote at the polling station where he is placed during the polling day, instead of at the polling station of the polling district where he would otherwise have been entitled to vote.

Certificate.

3. No such certificate shall entitle any such elector to vote at such polling station unless he has been actually engaged as such deputy returning officer or agent during the day of polling. R.S., c. 106, s. 33.

Right under certificate.

37. Electors desiring to vote shall be introduced, one at a time for each compartment, into the room where the poll is held.

Entering
station.

2. Every such elector so introduced shall declare his name, surname and addition, which shall be entered or recorded in the voters' list to be kept for that purpose by the deputy returning officer, and if the same is found on the list of electors for the polling district of such polling station, he shall receive from the deputy returning officer a ballot paper, with the initials of such deputy returning officer previously placed by him on the back thereof in such manner that when the ballot is folded they can be seen without opening it, and with a number corresponding to that opposite the voter's name on the voters' list placed by him on the counterfoil thereof. R.S., c. 106, s. 34.

Proceedings
on voting.

38. Such elector, if required by the deputy returning officer or by any elector or agent, as aforesaid, present, shall, before receiving his ballot paper, take the oath or oaths of qualification required by the laws in force in the province where the election is held from a voter at an election of a member of the House of Assembly of that province, with the words House of Commons of Canada substituted for House of Assembly, or with such other change as is required to make the oath applicable to the election of a member of the House of Commons of Canada.

Elector may be sworn.

2. The deputy returning officer is authorized to administer such oath or oaths.

Administering oath.

3. The deputy returning officer shall instruct every elector voting, how and where to affix his mark, and how to fold his ballot paper, but without inquiring or seeing whether the elector intends to vote for or against the petition, except in cases where the elector is unable to read, or is incapable by blindness, or

Deputy
officer to instruct elector.
