

R.

ould be sent over a
e sold to merchants
e; and the partners
an would be only too
to ask no questions as ters were carried out.
nominal partnership
e estate a few miles
country gentleman.
ooked upon by the
d it an unheard-of
settle among them;
ter it became known
his place among the
nditure equal to that remarkable not only
her jewels, many of
d never before been
on, and the relations
there was no longer
le it became known
h main, that Roger
of Cortez, and that ztec Princess. This led much to the con-
He took a leading
after fitted out two
the Spanish Armada.
t from the change to
ire. She bore Roger
t the first families in their veins the blood