LITERATURE.

SEVERAL of our cotemporaries, having intimated a desire that an accurate account of the events of the war of 1812 in this country, should be given by those who participated in it—and the Montreal Herald in particular having done the Editor of this paper the honor to name him, among others, who could, from personal experience, supply the desired information, we beg to state, for the information of our Subscribers, that on the completion of the adventures of "Jack Brag in Spain," we shall publish a "Narrative of the operations of the Right Division of the Army in Upper Canada." All Officers who served in that war, and who now, in this country, have it in their power to supply detailed accounts of the operations of the centre and left Divisions, are requested to send us their various statements (free) with a view to a compilation which will embrace the principal occurrences of that period. The form of the personal narrative connected with the military operations detailed will as more interesting to the public, as well as more corroborate of the historical events recorded, be desirable. The operations of the Right Division by the Editor, will embrace the several actions in which Tecumseh was engaged with the British Troops, and will throw a light upon the character of that renowned Indian, which has never yet been thoroughly revealed to the Canadian public.

As the copy right of this Narrative will be secured, those only who now are, or may become, subscribers to the "New Era," will have an opportunity of possessing themselves of an important portion of Canadian History, which cannot be without interest to the Canadian public—particularly to the admirers of Tecumseh.

We request our cotemporaries, to whom we have to express our unfeigned acknowledgements for the highly complimentary manner in which they have, on various occasions, quoted largely and approvingly from our columns, to do us the additional favor to copy the above, or otherwise notice the subject in any other manner they may judge expedient.

WACOUSTA AND THE CANADIAN BROTHERS,

THESE NATIONAL AND HISTORICAL WORKS, having been got up at great expense and serious inconvenience to the author, without that remuneration from the Canadian public, which as a Canadian writer, he has had a right to expect from the more liberal portion at least of the community, are now to be disposed of at the reduced price of FIVE dollars for the complete set, containing FIVE VOLUMES, three of which alone, (Wacousta) have always been sold in England, for no less than SEVEN dollars: The two works will be neatly and separately bound, so as to make two books which as volumes of reference, it cannot but be supposed, will find their way into the library of every Canadian Gentleman, desirous of knowing any thing connected with the early history of his own country. And it must be borne in mind that the English Edition of Wacousta, sent for to this country, EXPRESSLY FOR CANADIAN READERS, is the only correct one that has ever issued from the Press. The piratical reprint in Waldie's Circulating Library, is in correct, several of the most forcible passages in the book, being left out altogether. A fac simile of the autograph letter, sent to HIS MAJESTY, KING WILLIAM THE FOURTH, and accepted with the presentation Copy, will be prefixed to each SUBSCRIBER'S number of WACOUSTA. Every subscriber will moreover, be entitled to a copy at half price of TECUMSEH, the last English number of which is to be placed under the foundation stone of the Monument to be erected to that celebrated Warrior, yet which, it is intended to reprint from the original MSS.—thus completing the series of CANADIAN WORKS.

We trust our cotemporaries, who have already afforded the most flattering testimony of the Author's attempt to infuse a spirit of National Literature into his native land, will not be slow in urging upon the consideration of the public the reasonableness of his present proposition. We subjoin, a few of the English and Canadian notices, which have stamped these works with value.

The Edition of WACOUSTA, embraces not more than 300 copies—and at moment one half of these are subscribed for, in the manner above named, by those who really intend to redeem their own signatures, the set will be ready for delivery. Independently of private subscriptions lists, the several POST-MASTERS and principal BOOK STORES, will receive the names of those who wish to relieve the author from a weighty responsibility incurred in the furtherance of CANADIAN NATIONAL LITERATURE.

CANADIAN CHRONICLE.

A journal essentially Literary, and of a moderate, or juste milieu tone of politics, having for its object the ultimate good and prosperity of the Country, without undue or slavish bias towards any party, is a desideratum which cannot be more seasonably hailed than at a moment when these stupendous Provinces, emerging from the comparative night in which they have hitherto been enshrouded, are about to take their initiative among Nations. Hence the project of "The New Era, or Canadian Chronicle," which the educated of all classes of society, and especially the more intellectual portion of the community, as well as the advocates of a consistent and good government are now called upon to support.

To render it accessible to all classes, the Terms of Subscription to the Canadian Chronicle, will be four dollars a year, payable half yearly in advance.
The first six months, two dollars, to be paid on delivery of the first number.

All communications to the Editor to be POST PAID.

PRINTED and Published for the Proprietor, every Friday by J. CORBIER, at the office of the NEW ERA, Brockville, Canada.
