Again addressing the children, he enumerated the virtues they should practice, and the bad habits they should specially avoid or overcome. He then administered the Temperance pledge to the children till they should be twenty one years of age.

EASTER IN WALLACEBURG.

In the Church of Our Lady Help of Christians, Wallaceburg, Oat.. the musical service was of a most claborate and pleasing kind, and the pastor, Rev. M. J. Brady, and the choir are to be congratulated upon its success. The subject of Father Brady's discourse was, we learn from the Wallaceburg New of the lith. 'Christ, the Living, Risen God. 'The reverend gentleman, in a masterly sermon, fully explained the coming of Christ into the world. His mission here, how the had performed that mission, what He had done, what He sould do and what He was doing. He had fulfilled the Scriptures and come, built up, sustained, protected, strengthened His people, His living Church. Without Christ how weak they were, and with Christ how strong they were. The whole sermon was brim full of good Christian doctrine, solid instructions and Christian principles. The handsome edifice was beautifully and other flowers. The church was packed full to overflowing and a very iberai Easter offering was placed upon the off-riory plates. The music by the choir and organist was soul-stiring and inspiring, as also was the singing of the chants during the service by the bastor. Altogeher it was a very solema service.'

FIRE IN ST. MARY'S CHURCH, LONDON.

Early Saturday morning, April 132h, frebroke out in St. Mary's church, Hill street, this city, and, we regreat to say, before it could be subdued. a large amount of damage was inflieted. Unfortunately, it began in the sanctuary, which contained the most valuable property in the church, including the beautiful picture of the Crucifision presented the church by the late Archbishop Walsh when Bishop of London. The origin of the church was the first to make the discovery. The fire brigade showed remarkable activity in arriving at the scene of the configration, and in a short time succeeded in extinguishing the flames. The loss is about $1,400.

CHURCH CONCERT AT STURGEON

To the Editor of the RECORD: If "a little nonsense now and then is relisned by the best of men," an occasional evening of pleasant recreation is no less conducive to light hearts and happ moods. And just such an evening was that furnished us on the 10th instant by the good cure of the parish, Rev. Father Grondin, when most pleasing and decidedly successful anterianment was given in the chapel of the Sacred Heart in aid of the church funds. The plactor fixtures and decorations were arranged in the pretty effect

sufficent for the number of people in attendance;
but there was, nevertheless, a large and highly appreciative audient present. The programme had been prepared with much care and skill, the numbers cheen being very appropriate to the place and the occasion, and the entertainment, from beginning to end, was carried out in a manner that of fact d great credit unon

THE SECRET OF THE SAINTS.

- To play through life a perfect part,
 Unnoticed and unknown,
 To seek no rest in any heart,
 Seek no rest in any heart,
 In little things to own no will,
 To have no part in great,
 To find the labor ready still,
 And for the crown to wait.

- Upon the brow to bear no trace, of more than common care, of more than common care, To write no secret in the face for men to read it there; The daily cross to clasp and bless With such familiar zeal As bides from al. while not the less Its daily weight you feel.
- In toils, that praise will never pay, To see your life go past,
- To see your life go past,
 To meet in every coming day
 Twin sister of the last;
 To hear of high heroic things,
 And yield them reverence due,
 But feel life a daily offerings,
 Are far more fit for you.
- To woo no secret, soft disguise,
 To which self love is prone;
 Unnoticed by all other eyes,
 Unworthy in your own;
 To yield with such a happy art
 That no one thinks you care
 And say it your poor, bleeding heart;
 Howlittle can you bear.

- Oh, 'tis a pathway hard to choose,
 A struggle hard to share
 For human pride would still refuse
 The nameless trias there.
 But since we know the gate is low
 That leads to heavenly bliss,
 What higher grace could God bestow
 Than such a life as this!

MR. C. R. DEVLIN'S CONTRIBU TION.

The Most Rev. Dr. O'Donnell, Bishop of Raphoe, John E. Redmond, M. P., and Alderman Stephen O'Mara, trustees of the Irish Parliamentary Fund, have received the following letter from Mr. C. R. Devlin ex M. P., for Labelle County, and Commissioner of Immigration in Ireland:

14 Westmoreland street, Dublin, 15th March, 1991.

Dear Mr. White—Will you kindly see that the accompanying small cheque for £5 is for warded. I intend it for the Parliamentary Fund, and my only regret is that I cannot just now make it larger. I am a Canadian Home Ruler, and I think the moment is opportune for all friends of the National cause to help.

Trusting that you are well, and with my best wishes, believe me.

Yours Sinched Yours sincerely, C. R. DEVLIN.
