The Rev. H. PICKARD, D.D., Book Steward. The Rev. T. W. SMITH, Assistant Book Steward.

All letters relating to the business of either the Book Room or the WESLEYAN Newspaper Office, and all remittances of money for the WESLEYAN as well as for the Bock Room should be addressed to the Book Steward and not to the Editor.

But all Books to be noticed, and all communica tions and advertisements designed for insertion in the WESLEYAN, should be addressed to the Editor and not to the Book Steward.

INSTRUCTIONS AS TO REMITTING MONEYS:-1.-When sending money for subscribers, say whether old or new, and if new, write out their Post Office address plainly.

2.—See that your remittances are duly acknow-ledged. A delay of one or two weeks may be caused by the business of this office. After that inquire if they do not appear.

8-Post Office Orders are always safe, and not very costly. Next to these, is the security of registering letters. Money sent otherwise is at the risk of the sender.

By Rev. W. H. DANIELS, A.M.

The wide popularity, steady sale, and great spiritual power of this book calls for still another new The wide popularity, stendy sale, and great spiritual power of this book calls for still another new edision. From all quarters the good news reaches us that this volume is having a career of blessing, being owned of God as the means of the salvation of many souls. A reason for this may be found in the fact that the Editor has caught the inspiration of the great Evangelistic movement, and writes to the same purpose as Mr. Moody preaches or Mr. Sankey sings. It is a book of well established merit, and as such we offer this new and greatly enlarged edition.

Nearly 100 pages New Matter. No addition to the price.

This new edition gives a full account of Mr. Moody's latest and most successful revival in Baltimore; it also contains an entirely new feature, comprising his best and most practical talks on "How to Work for Christ, How to Work for Souls, How to Study the Bible, How to make Prayer-meetings interesting," Etc.

THE QUESTION DRAWER.

This last section is one which has never been published in any of the volumes on Mr. Moody's work In a last section is one which has hever been published in any of the volumes on air. Moody's work It contains his off hand answers to showers of questions in that peculiar feature of the Christian work-ers' conventions, which is called "Opening the Question Drawer." Some of Mr. Moody's suggestions are full of wit as well as of wisdom, and the choicest of them all have been collected. THIS BOOK HAS OUT-LIVED AND OUT-SOLD EVERY OTHER MOODY BOOK PUBLISHED

This volume contains nearly 700 pages crown octavo, including 10 full page illustrations. It is elegantly printed on fine paper, is handsomely bound, and is not only a book of the widest and most per-manent interest and value of any yet published in this line, but is also the CHEAPEST FOR ITS PRICE. Full Cloth, Gilt Stamp, $2. Half Turkey Morocco, Gilt Side Stamp, Marbled Edge, $2.75.
