North American Life Solid Continent
Imprudent investments are frequently made by persons who have neither the time to make a thorough investigation, nor the means of obtaining reliable information. Such investments often result disastrously.
Endowment insurance in a strong financial institution such as the

NORTH AMERICAN
has no such disadvantages. The company, in common with other companies, is carefully examined each year by the Canadian Government, who require a strong reserve fund to be held for the protection of the policyholders. The solidity of the company is conclusively shown by the proportionately large net surplus over all liabilities. No safer investment can be made than an endowment policy in the
