Hippodrome Packed and Thousands Stood Outside

Wild Cheers as Pugsley Smashes the Slander Campaign

Enthusiasm Hailed Emmerson's Discussion of Liberal Policy

t. Emmerson and Hen. Dr. Pugsley Between eight and nine thousand ple listened to the epeeches by Hon Dr. Pugsley, Hen. H. R. Emmerson C. W. Kobinson, A. B. Copp. C M. Legere and J. T. Hawke. The rowd, which taxed the large Hippodrome theatre to its utmost limit with nearly three thousand people, who occupied every inch of available seating and standing space, was little more than half as large in numbers as the oncourse which assembled in the streets outside unable to gain admission to the building and extended in a dense mass along Main street, completely blocking that thoroughfare for

A special train brought a thousand enthusiastic Liberals from the eastern nd of the county, while a special train rought in over the Moncton and Bucouche Railway a fine representation rom that section.
