Affidavits as to the Statement of W. L. Mc-

Donald.

The Chief of Police Says the Statement Was Made.

The following declarations bearing on the statement credited to Mr. W. L. Mc-Donald, vice-president of the Miners' Union, make their own meaning plain: Dominion of Canada, Province of British Columbia, County of Koctenay, to wit:

I, Charles Abraham Gregg, of the city of Rossland, in the province of British Columbia, editor, do solemnly declare: 1. That I am the managing director of the Rossland Miner Printing and Publishing company and am the editorin-chief of the Miner, which is a newspaper printed and published daily and weekly by the said company at the city of Rossland.

That the statements contained in the issue of the said Miner newspaper published this day, which refer to Wilnow on in the hostand "the game is up," was based upon information furnished to me by Roland ful. A. Laird, who is the city editor of the said Miner newspaper, the said Roland circumstances upon which the said publication was based, told me that he had received his information from the of the city of Rossland, during the afternoon of yesterday.

3. That I have read over what purports to be an affidavit made by the said William L. McDonald, "sworn on the 12th day of September, 1901, before Wm. B. Townsend, J.P., a notary pub-lic in and for the province of B. C.," in which the said William L. McDonald denies the substance of the allegation made against him in today's issue of the said Miner newspaper, namely, in referring to the present strike in Rossland "that the game is up." 4. That at the earliest opportunity afforded me after the receipt of the said purported affidavit of W. L. McDonald, I sought out and interviewed the said Frank Vaughn and in the presence of the said Vaughn as to his conversation with the said W.L. McDonald in which the said McDonald used the words attri-buted to him as aforesaid and the fol-lowing is the substance of such inter-command of Second Lieutenant Hon. F. with the said W. L. McDonald in which lowing is the substance of such interview:

I said to the said Vaughn "We are peated the words to the said Vaughn RECEIVE mentioned and set out in paragraph 2 of this my declaration and asked him if of this my declaration and asked him if there was anything further concerning the same and the said Vaughn confirm-ed the statement he had made to me the previous evening as above related, adding the further remark that W. L. McDonald had said to him "that the three men combine down the but month STUART CUMBERLAND'S MR. STORY AT THE LE ROI three men coming down the hilt would please the boys but that it would not affect the situation as the end was THE GOVERNOR'S COLLABORA-

5. That I afterwards repeated my second interview with Vaughn as related in the last paragraph hereof to Mr

Gregg. 6. That I met said Frank Vaughn on Washington street this afternoon and asked him if what was published in this morning's Miner was substantially what W. L. McDonald had said to him is from the London Financial Journal, and the said Vaughn replied that it
