

EUROPEAN AFFAIRS.

OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT'S.

London, May 24, 1850.

Parliament re-assembled last night after the adjournment of the House of Commons.

The House of Commons met at 7 o'clock.

The first business was the reading of the address in answer to the address of the House of Commons to the Queen.

The address was read by Mr. Peel.

The House then proceeded to the consideration of the bill for the amendment of the law relating to the trial of juries.

The bill was read a second time.

The House then adjourned.
