FARMERSVILLE AND VICINITY.

Walks About Town. What Our Reporter Saw, Heard and Noted.

Auction Sales.

William Harper will sell forty dairy cows and other stock, at Dickens, on Thursday, February 26th, commencing at 1 o'clock. Joseph Morris, Lansdowne, will sell by auction, on Wednesday, March 4th, commencing at 1 o'clock sharp, a valuable lot of live stock, implements, furniture, etc. W. Kilborn will sell a number of cows, sheep, horses, implements, etc., on Thursday, March 5th, on lot 80, con. 9, Kitley. Sale at 12 noon.

The Roads.

The road leading to Hard Island is reported as being in a shocking condition, owing to the pitch-holes that have been allowed to remain since last week's storm. We think all township Councils should pass a By-law making it obligatory on Pathmasters to keep the roads in their divisions in a passable condition, as well in winter, as in summer. There certainly requires to be something done to render travelling more safe and pleasant.

The Rink.

Considerable indignation is expressed by season ticket holders at the manner in which Mayor Carson is conducting the rink. The last snow-storm proved too much for the Mayor, or, probably, he resigned in favor of the Saved Army. A mixture of both is perhaps his reason for not cleaning the snow off the rink. But we are assured that the rink will be resurrected in due form, and that it will not pass away till called hence by the gentle zephyrs of the spring.

The Chinese Question.

The question of the admission of the Chinese into Canada was ably discussed at the last meeting of the L. M. A. Mr. Fisher and Mrs. Wood favored their admission, and Mr. Hagerman and Mrs. Fisher appeared in opposition. The debate was lively and interesting from the start, and the speeches were interspersed with choice vocal and instrumental selections. The papers on the subject prepared and read by Mrs. Fisher and Mrs. Wood treated the question concisely, and the points made were clearly and logically defined. The question being thrown open, Messrs. Blackburn, Donnelley, Connors and Reid joined in the debate. The question being submitted for decision to the audience, a majority voted in favor of excluding the Chinese. We believe other debates are being prepared, and will take place at the L. M. A. in due course.

Died in Dakota.

It is with feelings of sorrow that we this morning chronicle the death at Ojata, Dakota, of an old resident of this village, Sterling Alguire, Esq. The only particulars we can learn are that the remains left Dakota on Monday at 4 p. m., and are expected in Brockville at 4 p. m. on Thursday. Should the remains arrive as expected the funeral will start from the Methodist Church here on Friday, 27th at 2 p. m.

No extra charge for this double number of the Reporter.
