THE STEVENSON PIANO.

The following is an unsolicited testimonial as to the merits of this excellent Piano:—
To Stevenson & Co.:

Dear Sirs,—As a matter of justice I wish to give my unsolicited recommendation of the Stevenson Piano. The Stevenson Company warranted the Piano for a term of years. They have thus far more than fulfilled their contract. The Piano in our Parlor in Albert College delights all musicians who test its fine qualities. After the instrument had been in use a few weeks, I gave a willing testimony to its many excellencies. Now, after nearly two years of constant use, my opinion has not changed, except for the better. The true test of a piano is in using it one or two years. The Stevenson Piano has borne that test. I am more than satisfied.

Ode to Winter.

BY ENG.—A FARMERSVILLE BOY.

Winter wild, stern Nature's child,
A fickle, wayward thing,
my poor muse doth not refuse,
An ode to thee I'll sing.

Though to the great, in pomp and state,
Thou dost much comfort bring,
The poor would say, Oh! haste away
And leave the year to Spring.

Thou art a king, for every thing
Yields to thy sovereign power,
Thy chilling blast that whistles past
Soon brings the flakey shower.

With ice and snow where e'er we go,
Thou coverest every thing,
Therefore, we say, Oh, haste away
And leave the world to Spring.

There's many think the skating rink
Quite a fine place to stay,
And many ride, their love beside,
In the merry, jingling sleigh.

Thou givest all the carnival,
Where skaters have full swing,
But the poor would cry, Winter go by,
And leave the world to Spring.

From shore to shore thou bridgest o'er,
The lakes and rivers too,
And the railway train off tries in vain
The banks to worry through.

The teamster he don't wish to see
The drifts you often bring,
And when you do, he wishes you
Would leave the year to Spring.

Thou comest here once every year
To pile the drifting snow,
But the shivering herd and every bird
All wish to see you go.

Now, if you stay till April day,
You'll be no longer king,
For the genial sun will make you run,
And leave the year to Spring.

Addenda.

My baulky muse doth here refuse
Farther with me to go,
Though I had not indulged the thought she e'er would use me so.

But if I stay till flowery May,
As some may hope I will,
My muse despite an ode I'll write
To lovely Farmersville.
