Within the Reach of ## Women

For Tired and Ailing Women

A Box of Health.

"All things come to those who wait." Women have waited long for a remedy free from alcohol and opium and embodying the latest discoveries in medicine.
The placing on the market of Dr. Hugo's formula has now put within the reach of every woman the latest and best possible remedy known to medical science in this twentieth century for the peculiar ills of women, containing as it does every known ingredient which will make healthy women. There can be nothing better till there are new discoveries in medicine.

Dr. Hugo's Health Tablets

For WOMEN

Make HEALTHY WOMEN

Before placing the remedy on the market the formula was submitted to leading chemists on this continent and by them declared "An ideal preparation for women."
It was submitted to distinguished physicians as well, and they all declared themselves unable to add to its value.
A letter received from one of these, a doctor of forty years practice, is given below. While we cannot publish his name we will forfeit $1,000 if we cannot prove the authenticity of his letter.

A Doctor's Opinion.

I have studied carefully the formula for Dr. Hugo's Health Tablets for Women, which you submitted to me, and I am free to admit that it is a rare combination to meet the various diseases to which women are subject, and shows that it comes from one who has mastered the art of healing the diseases peculiar to females. As a physician, I should not hesitate in a single instance to prescribe Health Tablets. My forty years' practice does not enable me to make a single surgical operation. I suppose the medical profession should always be willing to endorse publicly a remedy like Dr. Hugo's Health Tablets, of which experience has proved the efficiency. However, as such is not the custom, I must ask you not to give this letter publicity over my signature, although no consulting chemist could do otherwise than declare what I have done herein.

MISS MARGARET M. HANNA.

The Only Woman Who Does Diplomatic Work for the Government.

There are very many women who render valuable services to the United States government in the various departments in Washington, but Miss Margaret M. Hanna is the only woman in Uncle Sam's employ who does diplomatic work. Her business is the handling at the department of state in Washington of correspondence which relates to diplomatic affairs. She is, in fact, the assistant of the second

assistant secretary of state. Though still in her twenties, she has occupied this position ever since 1898. Her salary is $1,800 a year. Miss Hanna is pretty, with blond hair and graceful manners. Ann Arbor, Mich., claims her as her birthplace. She is an excellent linguist, understanding both French and Spanish, and when the arbitration party went from this country to The Hague a couple of years ago to settle the question of the disposition of the pious fund she went along as translator of Spanish, doing incidentally some stenographic reporting. On a more recent occasion Miss Hanna did the same kind of work in connection with the Venezuelan claims commission.

When You Have a Cold.

There are apt to be symptoms of "wepiness" with a cold. The lids are red and sometimes swollen. Particularly is this so if the eyes are inclined to be at all weak. Under these conditions don't use them more than is necessary and bathe with a mixture of two ounces of camphor water and two grains of borax. For this use an eye cup. Bathe it with the wash, adding a little hot water to take off the chill.
Fit the cup over the eye, throw the head back, opening the eye wide, letting the liquid bathe every portion of the eyeball. This will reduce any irritation, also remove any inflammation.
Aching limbs and joints are more than often an accompaniment of a cold. A good general rubbing with alcohol or spirits of camphor will take away the stiffness. The fever accompanying a cold affects the hair as well as the body, so that daily massage will be necessary. This will prevent the hair falling and also aid in keeping up the general circulation.

Pleasant Mealtimes.

Many people must have been struck by the utter absence of interesting conversation that is so marked a feature of modern mealtimes. In the olden days all the wit and brightness of the time seemed to focus about the breakfast and dinner tables, and nearly all the celebrated stories of wit and repatee that have come down in history have been originated during mealtimes.
Nowadays people speak of their worries and troubles at the table, look up train time and read papers during breakfast, and if there is anything disagreeable to tell they prefer mealtimes for such remarks. It has been suggested that children should be trained to speak well and cheerfully during meals, just as they are trained to eat properly. Each habit will cling and make them much sought after in society. Worry is bad on the digestion, and so is the fashion of bolting the food. Both are hard on your neighbor and ruinous to one's digestion and intellect.

The Home to Come To.

The ideal home is one in which the inmates think more of their duties than of their rights and recognize that they are responsible for each other's happiness. To be admitted to such a hearth, warmed by the crimson flame of charity and household affection, bright with the sparkle of gaiety and rarer flash of wit, illumined by the glow of thought and clear light of sincerity, beautiful with courtesy, forbearance and refinement, its atmosphere vital with the oxygen of moral purity and open to currents of fresh ideas, adorned by culture and social amenity and securely built upon righteousness and faith, is moral regeneration as well as happiness and rest. Whether rich or poor, with many or few inmates or operly one, any hearth may breathe this home spirit, while to come home to somebody in such a haven is the best and most lasting of earthly joys.—Maxwell Gray. Author of "The Silence of Dean Maitland," in Black and White.

Let's Brush Up.

Too many women when they become wives and mothers cease their reading as they forget their songs. Bright speech and a good story may be told over the coffee with much better effect than the recital of the household worries and the ways of the handmaiden, topics in high favor with most women when the man of the house returns at eventide. There is nothing so fascinating to the masculine nature as the element of uncertainty in life, in business and all the contingencies of life. That is why he gambles in great things and in small. Chance is the modern Circe.

And well do women know this, yet it is experience alone that teaches them that the only way to hold the love and interest of a man is to keep him guessing what chameleon trick she will next spring upon him. Once realizing and acting upon this knowledge, she holds the key of the citadel, his heart, and may defy the world.—Exchange.

The Tailor Made Gown.

Women take a lot better care of their evening gowns than those in which they are seen daily. Isn't it strange how many women will wear a tailor made day after day every time they go out, yet never think of having it pressed?
Yet a man always has the suit he isn't wearing in the hands of his tailor, being cleaned and pressed.
Women's tailor makes are a good deal like men's clothes nowadays—that is, in the cloths of which they are made.
They are almost as liable to being kneaded or wrinkled, and there's nothing freshens a gown like a good brushing and pressing.

Stuffed Eggs.

Stuffed eggs for luncheon or supper are always good. Boil the eggs hard and after they have cooled cut in two crosswise. Mash the yolks and mix with butter or anchovy paste, minced parsley, salt and pepper. Minced ham or chicken may be substituted for the fish paste, and chopped sardines are sometimes liked. A little lemon juice is a necessity when fish is used. Fill the white cups neatly and place on ice to chill. If the dish is to present an appearance, serve the eggs in aspic with lettuce leaves underneath. Mayonnaise accompanies the eggs.

Bedsteads.

"Among all the useless things that afflict society," said the housekeeper, "it would perhaps be impossible to find anything more entirely absurd than the high headboards and footboards with which beds are still made. A bed needs only a footboard and headboard high enough to support the pillows and keep the coverings where they belong, and the superfluous materials now put into such projections not only make the bed clumsy and hard to move, but necessitate its being placed not where one wants it, but with the high headboard against the wall."

The Sewing Machine.

The sewing machine still bothered me by running hard even after I had thoroughly oiled and cleaned it, says one woman. But at last I found one place that I had neglected—the throat plate. All that was necessary was to remove the screw and lift that little cover where the needle runs in and out. There was such an accumulation of dust and dirt that the trouble was easily accounted for.

Cheese Souffle.

Four two cupfuls of hot milk over two cupfuls of soft breadcrumbs. Add a cupful of grated cheese and three beaten eggs. Bake as an omelet (this will make two), and when one side is done set it in the oven until brown.
A much longer time is required in the cooking than for the ordinary omelet.
It should puff to a thickness of at least two inches and be of a uniform golden brown.

Woman's Work.

To woman it is given to add many fold to the enjoyment which the wealth products of industry are able to secure. It is the present duty of the economist to magnify the office of the wealth expender. There is no economic function higher than that of determining how wealth shall be used.
More discriminating choice necessitates more discriminating production.

For the Kitchen.

Little glass medicine cups, with teaspoonful, tablespoonful and wineglassful indicated in raised letters, are valuable to have in the kitchen. The usual method of guessing at the right quantity of salt, flavoring extract or other cooking material is not to be recommended. Teaspoons are not made in any uniform size. Medicine glasses are.

Canned Fruit For Dessert.

Canned fruit may be used for desserts in many ways. The juice in the can should be heavily sweetened and botted down to a sirup. This makes the fruit richer. Common canned peaches heated in a thick sirup and served with cream are very good indeed. Canned raspberries make a delicious Bavarian cream or charlotte russe.

Charm of Good Humor.

Women who ask how to make themselves charming can be given no better advice than to cultivate good humor, which is more than anything else the chief cornerstone of adaptability.—Chicago Tribune.
