Motion to Summon Accountant Before Bar of the House.

Bar of the House.

Ottawa, April 5.—Once more the North Atlantic Trading Company is under the limelight.

Mr. Monk moved to bring before the bar of the House for contempt C. H. Beddoe, an accountant of the interior department, who went to Europe to audit the accounts of the company.

Mr. Monk pointed out that the House was entitled to know upon what facts the auditor found these accounts to be correct. For example one item with which the company is credited is a payment of $14,000 for "printing."

"printing."

"Surely," Mr. Monk insisted, "we are entitled to know who are the printer or printers to whom this sum was paid. How can the House sanction a payment of $14,000 for printing when the Government refuses to say who did the printing?"

Mr. Oliver submitted that Mr. Beddee was merely carrying out the

Mr. Bourassa vigorously insisted that it was a most dangerous principle to allow a witness to dety Parliament. The trading company's contract was immoral, otherwise there would be no need of secrecy.

Hen. George E. Foster submitted that the public accounts committee was an auditing committee, and investigating committee, but for the past two years a partisan chairman and a servile partisan majority has strangled any effort to really investigate any any effort to really investigate any

Now Finds Himself In Jail on Serious Charge,

Owen Sound, Ont., April 5.—Last summer Dr. Parks, of Feversham, while attending the family of W. Patterson, of Collingwood Township, had his suspicions directed to the 13-year-old daughter of the house, whose mind is somewhat unbalanced. Direct questioning elicited a confession that for two years the girl had maintained illicit relations with Hugh Thompson, a neighboring farmer, who is 50 years old.

In November following Dr. Parks took the girl and her parents to the office of Mr. John Birnie, K. C., Town Solicitor of Collingwood, where depositions were made. Mr. Birnie wrote to Thompson, and as a result the later visited the lawyer's office and made a settlement for $500, paying

Two hundred dollars of the amount paid Mr. Birnie handed over to Dr. Parks, and the rest he retained, the parents of the girl receiving nothing.

Mr. Birnie, in explanation of his retention of the money, stated that he heard rumors that the Crown was about to take the matter up, and about to take the matter up, and thought it best not to pay over the money to the parents. Dr. Parks claims that the $200 which he received was in payment for professional services to the family, in addition to $160 which he had already received.

Provincial Revenue Expands. Provincial Revenue Expands.

Toronto, April 5.—Succession duties in March received by the Provincial Treasury amounted to $194,327.33. In March, 1906, the total was $35,565.74. The first three months of this year have netted $248,932.74, against $133,230.35 for the same period last year. The Provincial Secretary's department received in the month of March $32,638. Last year in the same month the receipts were $17,328. For the first quarter of 1907 the revenue amounted to $38,667. For the same quarter in 1906 the amount was $50, quarter in 1906 the amount was $50,104.

The large increase in the number of companies incorporated and the promptitude with which fees were paid by companies making annual returns account for the larger revenue.

Freedom For Ireland. Freedom For Ireland.

London, April 5.—The Tribune says:
"Before the colonial Premiers separate we may expect to see them pass a resolution asking that freedom under the crown which they so fully enjoy shall be extended to Ireland. So far as the Government is concerned the resolution will be not only warmly received, but immediately acted upon.

For Catarrh of the Stomach

Gen. W. W. Duffield, Washington

Golden Text—"Behold I am with thee and will keep thee in all places whither thou goest."

Dreams were one of the special ways in which God revealed Himself and His will to men, when as yet there was no written word.

Jacob's deceit has got him into trouble. He is forced to loave home, (ather, mother and native land, and to go into a strange country o be deceived as he himself had deceived h's father, deceiving and being deceived are linked together; but he went away with his father's blessing. The first night of his journey he camped on the spot on which Abram built an altar to God about 150 years before, and, with a stone for a pillow, slept, while Jehovah introduces Himself and His love to this prodigal son, in a most comforting way, as the one that blessed and protected his grandfather and fathers.

God gives Jacob nine precious promises, the ninth being our golden text, and Jacob awakens suddenly with for A strange effect. text, and Jacob awakens suddenly filled with fear. A strange effect from such a cheering dream; but Jacob, like other men, was a sinner. If he had known God was there he would have camped elsewhere; such is human folly. Jacob felt it a dreadful place, because God was there, yet when we confess our sins He is faithful and righteous to forgive us our sins and cleanse us from all unrighteousness, then in the presence of God is fulness of joy. Apparently he slept again till dawn, when he erects and anoints his pillow into a memorial pillow, calling Apparently he slept again till dawn, when he erects and anoints his pillow into a memorial pillow, calling the place Bathel, or the home of God.

The effect of this gracious meeting between God and the sinner very greatly impressed and improved Jacob, and he vowed a vow—He was always ready to strike a bargain even with Almighty God—much of the religion of to-day is an attempt to make a good bargain, with Him who has said it is more blessed to give than to receive. After the revelation of such grace it was wise on Jacob's part to become a partner with God with 10 to 1 in his favor, and yet not many are willing to make this 10 per cent. investment, and fewer yet to receive Jesus Christ, God's gift; then all things are ours, we are Christ's, and Christ is God's.—I. Cor., 3, 21-22.
