

The President of the "Canadian Medical Association" Writes as follows:

Dear Sirs:—
I know and recommend your excellent tonic "WILSON'S INVALIDS' PORT."
I prescribe it to young persons and to debilitated women, and the result is always most satisfactory.
I congratulate you for having filled with the greatest of care a time-honored prescription, which is approved by the medical profession.
I heartily wish you all the success you deserve.
Yours truly,

THE POWER OF STEAM.

Many May See But It Takes Genius to Realize.
When James Watt saw the steam raising the kettle lid to jump up and down he said "There must be power in that steam that it can lift such a weight."
There was.
Millions prior to him had seen the same phenomenon and regarded it as an unexplained mystery.
Recent scientific research has put its finger on the "cause" of Dandruff, Falling Hair, and consequent Baldness, and has unearthed a tiny germ which eats the life from the roots of human hair.
Newbro's Herpicide destroys this germ and consequently restores the hair to its natural state.
Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

DOWIE'S SUCCESSOR.

Glenn Voliva Bitterly Arraigns John Alexander as a Liar, Spendthrift and Traitor.

DOWIE ON HIS WAY TO ZION.

ZION CITY, Ill., April 8.—With the approval of thousands of Dowieites in open meeting today General Overseer Glenn Voliva denounced John Alexander Dowie as a spendthrift, liar and traitor and was in turn promised support as leader of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion to fill the place of the founder of the church, now deposed, and on his way from Mexico to fight for what he considers his rights.
When after denouncing Dowie, Overseer Voliva suddenly demanded a decision of the audience which crowded Shiloh Tabernacle as to who should be their future leader, the 6,000 persons in the auditorium rose as one person and signified their willingness to follow Voliva to the end.
On the platform with Voliva were Mrs. John Alexander Dowie, Judge Barnes, head of the law department of Zion City, Speicher, Esq., Cantel and Granger.
At the conclusion of a short prayer the new leader of Zion, clad in a robe of simple white and black, a decided departure from the gaudy raiment assumed by the first apostle on similar occasions, stepped to the front of the platform and in a slow, calm and studied voice made the announcement that he was going to take advantage of today's meeting to tell a few truths about the man whom they had so faithfully followed for several years.

Mrs. Dowie Applauds.
Voliva then told of the deplorable conditions he found in Zion City when he arrived a month ago from Australia and took up the management of Zion's interests at Dowie's command. The speaker did not mince words but spoke bluntly of the "perfidy of John Alex." When most better in the denunciation of his former master there was no one in the tabernacle who showed more approval of Voliva's remarks than Overseer Mrs. James Dowie. When Voliva angrily exclaimed, "I will see that all the costly furniture and the expensive library adorning Dowie's Zion City residence and which were purchased by that hypocrite while many of his people were in need of food, are sold and the money turned into Zion storehouses," Mrs. Dowie half rose and with her voice and hands loudly applauded the words.
Overseer Voliva in justification of the overthrow of Zion's first apostle, told how money had been squandered foolishly for Dowie's own comfort while the creditors and the people of Zion were calling loudly for money.

Cold Reception Awaits Dowie.
Voliva requested all present to keep away from the railway station next Tuesday when Dowie reaches Zion City. "I don't want you to go down there and listen to his epistolical harangues," said Voliva. "If he should try any of his spectacular antics on his arrival here we will soon put a stop to it. He cannot hold a meeting in Shiloh tabernacle, because we won't let him. Should he succeed in securing a house in which to hold a meeting to address the people of Zion, I want you all to remain at home and not attend the meeting."
Voliva requested the people to give their assent to this arrangement by rising. The response was unanimous compliance.
After the meeting, the 250 Zion guards employed to keep order in the city, were sworn to support Voliva in all his undertakings and all took the oath of allegiance except one.
A message was received from Dowie this afternoon stating that he would reach Zion City Tuesday morning and ordering Shiloh house, his residence in Zion City, to be prepared for his home coming.
Voliva, after reading this message, said Dowie would not be allowed to enter the door of what formerly was his Zion City home.

Big Send-off for Dowie.
SAN ANTONIO, Texas, April 8.—John Alexander Dowie and his party left tonight for Chicago. Local Zionites arranged a meeting at which Dr. Dowie made an address before leaving. Although efforts were made to keep the meeting secret, because of a desire to avoid a crush, every seat in the local temple was filled fully an hour before Dowie appeared.
L. C. Hall, pastor of the local Zionist church, made a vigorous address, in which he defended Dowie at every point. Throughout his talk, ejaculations of "Amen," and "Yes," and "God be with thee" were made by the audience.

The audience joined in a silent prayer that strength might be given the "first apostle" to overcome his enemies in Zion.
When Dowie entered the hall the audience rose and sang a hymn of praise, and then for ten minutes Dowie and the audience prayed to banish the devil from Zion. Dowie's entire address was centered upon the subject of pragmatism and the conduct of his wife. The audience was with him in all that he said, even when he bitterly disparaged Mrs. Dowie.

Deranged Liver and Biliouness.
"For a long time I suffered from liver complaint and biliouness and could find nothing to help me until I used DR. CHASE'S KIDNEY-LIVER PILLS. I have recommended these pills to many of my friends and they have all been well satisfied with the results."—MRS. JULIE LANGLOIS, Manor, Assa.

CLOVERDALE.
CLOVERDALE, April 4.—Truman Jones and wife of Lincoln, Me., have again returned home to take up their abode with us for the future.
Mrs. Saml. Barker of Avondale, who spent a few days visiting her mother, Mrs. C. H. Wallace, has again returned home.

Abraham Jones of this place was to Woodstock on business this week. Duncan MacDonald made a flying visit to this place this week.
Our popular merchant, George Morgan, made his regular trip to this place today. He seems to be doing a rushing business in peddling by the loads he hauls from our enterprising little town of Hartland.

Miss Sarah Wallace is expected home from Woodstock in the near future. Mrs. Charles Wallace understands it on the sick list again.
School has started again in this place. Mrs. E. Gilman is teacher.
Master Fred Wallace is also on the sick list but we hope to see him out again in a day or two. It seems to be quite sickly around among all families just today.
Mrs. Saml. Wallace made a few pleasant calls yesterday afternoon.
Mrs. Truman Jones was the guest of Lilly Crabb yesterday.

Truman Jones and wife were the guests of Mr. Woodie Jones on Sunday.
Garfield Jones of Carlisle is visiting in this place.
Dan Ross is hauling hay from this place.
Jacob Wallace and family has moved into his new residence.

School has again reopened in Cloverdale East with Mr. A. Perkins as teacher.
We fear one of our young men has got lost as we have not seen him around for a long time.
Harry Jones of this place has gone to Cross Creek to work.

Clark's Veal Loaf. is just tender veal—tastily seasoned and cooked in batter. An appetizing tit-bit always.

Modes of Divination.
A Scotch maid desired to summon the image of her future husband, she read the third verse, seventeenth chapter, of the book of Job after supper, washed the supper dishes and retired to bed without uttering a single word, placing underneath her pillow the Bible, with a pin thrust through the verse she had read. On Allhallow eve various modes of divination were in vogue. Loman says that the young women determined the figure and size of their husbands by drawing cabalistic blimfohl, a custom which lingers still in some parts of Scotland. They also threw nuts into the fire, a practice prevailing also in England, as Gay has described:
Two hazelnuts I threw into the flame,
And to each nut I gave a sweetheart's name.
This with the holdest bounce, she sore amazed
That in a flame of brightest color blazed,
As blazed the nut, so may thy passion grow.

Or they took a candle and went alone to a looking glass, cutting an apple and combing their hair before it, whereupon the face of the future spouse would be seen in the glass peeping over the foolish girl's shoulder.

Language of Lawrence Jall.
Lieutenant John P. Bradstreet of the Fiftieth Massachusetts was for many years a deputy sheriff and turnkey under High Sheriff Herrick at the Lawrence house of correction. All the newcomers were by him assigned to their proper quarters.

One day upon the arrival of a new squad of inmates there was one who seemed somewhat more "tony" than the rest, and, calling the lieutenant aside, he claimed a little more consideration than the others owing to his previous standing in society.

"I never was in such a situation before," said he, "and I trust you will give me a little different quarters from those other fellows. I am highly educated and can speak seven different languages."
"Seven?" remarked the lieutenant. "That's altogether too many. We don't have but one language here and mighty little o' that."

When a man finds all other arguments fail with a woman he has only to throw himself upon her unselfishness.
