. THE UNION ADVOCATE.

VOL. 42

NEWCASTLE, N. B., SATURDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 30, 1909.

Thirty-Four Drowned, Six Saved in Wreek of The

JAPAN'S FOREMOST STATESMAN KILLED

Prince Ito Stricken Bown By Korean While Arriving at Harbin--- Was Killed by Those He Wanted Most to Help--- His Doath is Generally Mourned.

Prince Hirobuma Ito, former Jap- wounded. anese president general of Korea, and probably Japan's foremost statesman was assassinated here Three of the Prince's companthis (Tuesday) afternoon by a ions were also wounded, bullets Korean, who had followed him striking Japanese consul general

ath ON N. B

OK

ble

Harbin, Manchuria, Oct. 26 .- | Korea fell where he stood montally

Others Wounded.

WERE SEVEN DAYS AND NIGHTS AT THE PUMPS

Wi b her evew of seven men al- | Captain McClean, who is at the

at the the thought of being parted fested itself. Declaring that he Frank Vicar. from his wife, who was brought to would not be parted from his wife the hospital as a patient, attempt- he attempted to take her from the boys, bound from Scotland to Can- being submerged with the excepep to jump into the Reversing attendants. Failing in this he ran falls. The husband and wife came towards the falls with the evident farmers in New Brunswick or the twain, and the clinging seamen bedown river on the steamer Champ- intention of suicide. The coach- west. lain. The woman became violent | man, however, pursued and caught | Story of Suffering and Death. ly insane several days ago and as him and he was brought back to it was thought best to place her the city. His wife, who was a frightful suffering and death. The tion, they began to hope that the in the hospital her husband took former resident of St. John, was Hestia, bound to this port from morning would bring them aid, her in charge and started for that left at the institution.

Best Defenders of the Working Men Atlantic coast. Just how Captain them that unless taken from the has nothing to occupy him but to ations that the toilers can-obtain talk; he lives in an age he does not dividuals, they are totally unable thought that the captain believed darkness found them still holding understand," said Samuel Gompers, to maintain president of the American Federation of Labor, in a statement issued to-night in reply to a criticism of the rights of the workers and the trades unions by Dr. Eliot at Kenyon College, Ohio, last night.

"Since the time Dr. Eliot was mentally capably of appreciating derstanding and consequent hosti industrial and commercial conditions, development has gone on," continued Mr. Gompers. "The concentration of industry, in which combinations and trusts have developed, have all escaped him in so far as concerns their in-workers. The division, sub-division and After trying one of our celebrated fish specialization of labor has rendered suppers you will never want to at the workers absolutely helpless in-Washington, Oct. 28—"Former dividually, and it is only by as-President Eliot of Harvard now sociation in trade unions and federpromoters of real democracy. The labor organizations will carry on their mission despite the misun-

"They will live long after he and I are gone."

The following notice was recently placed in the window of a shop in the East End of London: 'Step inside.

STEAMER STRIKES WAY W OLD PROPRIETOR

Six Men Stuck to the Wreck From Hors Birth Lack of Boats and Were Saved.

CRIED "SAUE ME MOTHER",

Pathetic Death of Four Boy Passengers Dessel Storm of yesterday has ad Swept by Mountainous Seas As Soon As She Struck on "Old P. oprietor."

some of the rights which, as in- are swift and misleading and it is stand. Evening came on and himself to be much farther out to fast in the rigging. Throughout all diately after she struck.

Captain Newman, fearing that she from the shore.

This place is five miles from Grand Manan and about four miles north of Gannet Rock lighthouse. morth of Gannet Rock lighthouse. Mountainous seas at once swept her from stem to stern, and Captain Newman ordered the boats put out immediately. The tackle of the first boat broke when the latter was half way over the side and its living freight was seen on the crest of a way. far no word has been heard from the occupants of the second best the occupants of the second best and it is believed that their craft they med a watery greve. Only was swamped. The six men who be respective at Grand Menan and were saved clung to the forward East, ort last night thought that rigging and were taken off at 1 the only chance of their being Octava, O lieved that only death awaited them. As hour after hour passed of the most dangerous spots on the tense, and it seemed evident to Newman came to be so far out of wreek sometime during the after his course will probably never be noon they would perish from their known, as he, with his chief of exposure to e ld and wet. Here, ficers, have, it is firmly believed, however, it was again demon-

"The organizations of labor of sea. The seas were very high and Monday night they remained in to-day are the best defenders of according to the survivors they this position.

Tuesday morning store with a jar of butter. She debegan to sweep the vessel imme- with renewed energy they franti- sired to exchange it for another cally waved a portion of a jacket jar of butter. In churning her and me to death about whales Her The Hestia settled rapidly and in an attempt to attract attention butter she had discovered a mouse

Woman Tried to Blow Up her Husband

Chatham, Ont., Oct. 28-Mrs. and other members of the family Harry Rumble was committed to were asleep. Mrs. Rumble was the merchant carried her jar luto trial yesterday by Judge Houston captured in Detroit by provincial the back room, transferred her on a charge of attempting to blow detective Mahoney, who investiup the residence of her husband, gated the affair. She has been tified customer took back the John Rumble, on the river road, separated from her husband for the mouse butter with a thousand must be very impressive to see Chatham township, while Rumble past year.

winter weather prevails in a space valide resumed tom rrow, province, and nearly are homeles that the country when his mays but in the Country of Anthonist were about into the country of Anthonist were about into the country of the this (Tuesday) afternoon by a Korean, who had followed him here for the express purpose of killing him.

The motive of the assessination was revenge. The assessin was promptly arrival here and just as Prince Ito left the railroad car at the station the attack was made upon him. The venerable statesman, accompanied by Russian Minister of Finance Kokovsoff, was starting to inspect the guard of honor drawn up along the platform when a pisted shot was head. Several may be got the submersed to the great daynese states man who during his stay in Korea.

The separation of the surface and the submersed to inspect the guard of honor drawn up along the platform when a pisted shot was head. Several may be got the submersed by a downpour of rain, the big Finance Kokoysoff, was starting to inspect the guard of honor drawn up along the platform when a pistel shot was heard. Several more shots were fired in quick succession the bullets striking the Prince in the back.

The former president general of The fo

Will be recew of seven mental most dead with faugue, after fighting for seven days and hights, to save their vessel, the sehooner is piled up a total wreck on the rocky shore of Lewanika, Captain McLean came to what was to be her last anchorder with the same age, inside of Betty's Island at eight o'clock on Manday morning. The caw, with the exception of Manday morning. The caw, with the exception of many bardships.—Telegrapia were left on board, to boat could live m such a sea. So how were left on board, to boat could live m such a sea. So how were left on board, to boat could live m such a sea. So how were left on board, to boat could live m such a sea. So how were left on board, to boat could live m such a sea. So how were left on board, to boat could live m such a sea. So how were left on board, to boat could live m such a sea. So how were left on board, to boat could live m such a sea. So how were left on board, to boat could live m such a sea. So how were left on board, to boat could live m such a sea. So how were left on board, to boat could live m such a sea. So how were left on board, to boat could live m such a sea. So how were left on board, to boat could live m such a sea. So how were left on board, to boat could live m such a sea. So how were left on board, to boat could live m such a sea. So how were left on board, to boat could live m such a sea. So how were left on board in the fredericks a set of least with its single occupant to the boat with its single occupant the boat with its single occupant was seen on the crest of a wave, then a huge sea swept over it and it sank from view. Capt. New and it sank from view. Capt. New and it sank from view. Capt. New and its living freight was thrown that a latter was half way over the side and its living freight was thrown that the boat with its single occupant was seen on the crest of a wave, then a huge sea swept over it and it sank from view. Capt. New and the boat with its single occupant was seen on the crest of a wave, then a huge sea swept over it a

St. John. N. B., Oct. 28—One of the saddest incidents seen at the provincial hospital for many years occurred there yesterday when a young husband, crazed with grief at the the thought of being parted of clock by the life savers Tuesday alive lies in their success in reaching the Nova Scotia shore, a feat that these men declare to be practically impossible.

Arriving at the hospital two with wind and waves. They are attendants took the woman in charge and it was then that her busband, crazed with grief manifest of grief manifest that these men declare to be practically impossible.

The Men Left Behind.

In the meantime the men left on the left of the sadde line of the sadde line with standard second with substance of them sadden in their success in reaching the Nova Scotia shore, a feat that these men declare to be practically impossible.

The Men Left Behind.

In the meantime the men left on the left of the sadde line with standard second with substance of them sadden in their success in reaching the Nova Scotia shore, a feat that these men declare to be practically impossible.

The Men Left Behind.

In the meantime the men left on the left of the sadden in their success in reaching the Nova Scotia shore, a feat that these men declare to be practically impossible.

The Men Left Behind.

In the meantime the men left on the left of the sadden in their success in reaching the Nova Scotia shore, a feat that the sadden in the left of the sadden in the

Frank Viear. The four passengers were small board climbed to the rigging of St. John Man Flome from Trip Around World

The rescued men tell a tale of and the ship remained in her posificing suffering and death. The tion, they began to hope that the Hestia, bound to this port from merning would bring them aid, Glasgow, was proceeding to the possibly from the shore, more likemouth of the bay when with territy from a passing steamer. As rific force she crashed head-on to noon approached with no sign of the submerged rocks, a ledge derescent, their hopes again were clared by old marmers to be one dashed, their suffering grew into the most dangerous spots on the tense, and it seemed evident to An interesting visitor to the city (war. She also participated in the end lying it is a usvy yard at York before being laid up at Portsmouth, N. W. lass, since Mr. Portsmouth. Mr. McParthand has McPartland jokael her, seen active been here since last Friday .service in the Spanish-American Telegraph.

lost their lives. The currents there strated what human, beings can TOOK HER AT HER WORD. There is a great deal of needles trouble in the world on account of squeamish sentiment.

in the churn.

said to the storekeeper, "and to in sight. any one who did not know the circumstance it would taste alright. Taking the wom in at her word, thanks for the accommodation.

AN IMPRESSIVE SIGHT.

Capt. H. P. Nuse, of the Celtic, was regaling a little group of ladies with sea stories.

"One trip," he said, "there was a woman who bothered the officers one desire was to see a whale. A dozen times a day she besought us "It didn't injure the butter," she to have her called if a whale hove

"I said rather impatiently to her one afternoon:

"But, madam, why are you so anxious about this whale question?' "Captain," she answered, "I want to see a whale blubber. It such an enormous creature cry.