61-63-65 KING STREET WEST

Music and the Drama

"Bunco in Arizona," a play of western life, will be the attraction at the Grand to-morrow evening and Saturday, matinee and night. This is said to be one of the best plays of the popular price order, and has a very realistic atmosphere. There are four acts and each is laid in picturesque Arizona, while the people are all inhabitants of that district, and include miners, cowboys and Indians, which are full blooded and come direct from the reservation. The play is said to have a strong plot, and deal with a young girl who has been left a waif in a mining camp.

AT BENNETT'S THEATRE.

There is a diversity of acts on the Bennett bill this week that cannot fail to please patrons of vaudeville, among them "A Lamb on Wall Street," the comedy sketch in which Bert Cootie, the English comedian, who is making a tour of America in vaudeville, has been scoring an emphatic hit. The theme, which is woven around a youth of wealth being initiated into the mysteries of Wall Street, might in some hands turn out to be a sort of "thriller," but Cootie, with those peculiar laugh-provoking qualities that have added to his fame, makes the part indescribably funny. Without exaggeration it is one of the best comedy sketches seen here this season. Those who enjoy a good laugh should not miss seeing "A Carriage Ride and Its Mishaps," the pantomime produced by a company of ten people, headed by the famous Byrne brothers. The Vynos, a novelty musical trio, in their faraway offering; Phil Bennett, an Italian singer, who has been making a big hit; Conkey and McBride, dancers and character comedians, and the Johnnie Bush trio of comedy acrobats, including Johnnie Bush, the child comedian, are other entertaining numbers on a bill that rates high.

Harry W. Fields and his "Repent Napanes" will be one of the big features next week. It is a school day skit patterned after Gus Edwards' famous girl act.

AT THE SAVOY.

"A Flag of Truce," the attractive domestic drama presented by the Selman company, continues to please patrons of the theatre. The story centres around the love of William Hilton for Annie, the wife of Tom Hewins. She was the belle of Ferneliffe, whose hand had been much sought, but Tom proved the lucky fellow. Hilton swore to get even, and the war of 1861 found him in a position to have Tom "drafted." Jim Hewins, Tom's younger brother, determines to go as his brother. For his bravery on the field he is promoted and given a furlough. He comes home for the day, and with his modest way does not tell of the honor. Tom happens to be in Boston at the time, and on his arrival home is told of the home-coming of Jim. As his presence is not explained, Hilton spreads the report that Jim has deserted. Tom rushes to the headquarters and enlists. Through a series of forgeries Hilton convinces the wife and father that Tom has been killed, and also manipulates a scheme whereby their old farm is to be sold unless Annie promises to wed him. She does so reluctantly. Harry Swift, a bright young fellow, who is in love with Hattie Hewins, has search made for the missing brother. Jim arrives home to hear the story of the treacherous friend, and is about to shoot, when Hilton jumps over the cliff and is killed. The play is well staged, and affords an evening of enjoyment. Miss Lasche is delightful as Annie, and Mr. Selman is convincing as Tom Hewins.

ELGAR CHOIR CONCERTS.

The Elgar Choir concerts on Feb. 17 and 18, with their splendid programmes, are proving strong inducements to subscribers, and the response for seats for both concerts has been most pleasing to the executive. But the lists are not yet filled, and those contemplating enjoying concerts of exceptional merit should lose no time in adding the names to the lists and securing the advantages that come to early patrons. The first evening the Elgar Choir will shine in its own particular line. The second evening of the choir and the Pittsburgh orchestra will combine to present a magnificent programme.

IN A SNAKE DEN.

Ten-Year-Old Girl of Los Angeles, Frightened Into Hysterics.

Los Angeles, Cal., Jan. 14.—As the result, it is alleged, of being placed in a den of snakes at a show, a 10-year-old Hildegard Leuenberg may die. The child was hysterical from fright. It is claimed she was placed in the pit with a professional snake charmer to accustom her to the reptiles so she might learn to handle them.

When an officer, armed with a warrant, went to the place he found the doors closed and the show people gone.

LADIES' FEET.

Want True Size on a Woman's Shoe.

New York, Jan. 14.—There will be a rise in the size of women's feet if the shoe men have their way. No more will minuscule be able to squeeze her No. 7 pedal extremities into a No. 2, no matter how willing she may be to stand the pain of the squeeze. The shoe manufacturers' Association have decided, in the altruistic fashion common to tradesmen, that such things shall not be. In other words, all the girls will have to take a shoe their size.

Until yesterday's session of the association in the Hotel Astor it was not generally known that most of the shoe dealers have a code system in the marking of women's shoes by which a customer of that sex may flutter into a store, sit down on the leather covered bench and sweetly remark to the man in charge: "I think a No. 41 will about do," and then be threatened with convulsions while the obliging salesman squeezes, or tries to squeeze, the same one to a—well, what's the use?

"It's just vanity," said the shoe man, who introduced the measure, "and ought to be stopped. It enables a dealer to substitute one size for another in selling to a customer. It is a form of deception that is obviously unfair and unnecessary and I have thought that possibly the manufacturers might be forced into serious consideration of the problem."

His remarks were greeted with cheers, but then there were no women present.

WIFE WINS.

Mrs. Goslin Gets $50,000 Verdict For Alienation.

New York, Jan. 14.—The jury that has been hearing the testimony in the suit brought by Mrs. Una Goslin, the wife of the "get-rich-quick" man, Alfred R. Goslin, now living in Paris, France, where he went to escape the attentions of the police of this city, against Miss Anne Irene Magher, stenographer of Goslin, brought in a verdict to-day for the full amount sued for, $50,000.

Mrs. Goslin claimed that she and Goslin were the most loving of couples until the stenographer came into their lives. After that, she alleged, Goslin began to neglect her, and finally deserted her for Miss Magher.

SPAIN'S KING WOULD FLY.

Alfonso Has an Ambition to be First Monarch to Navigate the Air.

Paris, Jan. 14.—Alfonso, King of Spain, is preparing to become an adept in the art of flying. He has already acquired an aeroplane of the Wright model, and is to become a pupil of Wilbur Wright. Alfonso has an ambition to be the first monarch to navigate the air. When he has finished his course of instruction under Wright, he means to travel about in an aeroplane, instead of an automobile. Representations made by court officials respecting the risk to his life have had no effect upon him, as the King takes much pride in being up to date in matters of sport.

Where he got his flying machine is a mystery. It is thought it was manufactured for him in the workshop of Leon Bolle at Le Mans last autumn.

RAILROAD RATING.

Merchants' Association of New York Condemns the Practice.

The trend of feeling amongst conservative business men in the United States against the railroad rating practices of politicians is shown by the following resolution, which was recently adopted by the Merchants' Association of New York:

Whereas, the railroads of the United States constitute collectively the largest purchasing and consuming interest in the country, and as such exercise a corresponding influence on all of the industries on which they rely for the vast volume of materials and supplies which they require for construction, maintenance and operation, and

Whereas, the purchasing ability of the railroads, especially that relating to new construction, is largely contingent upon their ability to make such new issues of securities as may properly be needed to cover their financial requirements, and the ability to do this is directly dependent in turn for public confidence in the stability of the conditions which determine the earning power of the railroads; therefore, be it

Resolved, that the Merchants' Association of New York respectively urges all members of the Congress, all members of the Legislatures of this and other States, and of railroad commissions, to encourage the return of railroad business to normal conditions by ceasing and discountenancing ill-considered or unjustified censure of existing methods of railroad management, and by limiting proposed new legislation on these matters to such measures as have been so carefully investigated and studied as to determine clearly not only the necessity for their enactment, but also their proper form and scope for the accomplishment of intended reforms.

Resolved further, that copies of the resolution be sent to Senators and representatives in Congress and to the Senators and assemblymen in the State Legislature, in order thereby to encourage a public sentiment concerning railroad corporations which will promote the public welfare on the one hand by supporting necessary remedial legislation, and on the other hand opposing untimely, needless or arbitrary laws and regulations or restriction of railroad business.—Montreal Gazette, December 29, 1908.

Y. W. C. A. NOTES.

A very pleasant evening was spent at the Nurses' Home of the City Hospital on Monday evening, when the nurses were entertained by the Devotional Committee of the Y. W. C. A. A short programme was given by Miss Coutt and Miss Slater, assisted by some of the nurses, after which all joined in games. Mrs. Harrison, in her address, spoke of the pleasure it gave the committee to entertain the nurses in this way. Miss Simpson, the secretary, thanked all those taking part, especially Miss Copp, for her faithful work as convener of that committee. Mrs. House also thanked them for the pleasure given, and all parted with the feeling that the evening had been all too short.

The seventh of a series of lectures by Dr. Bagshaw was given on Wednesday night, and was very interesting, dealing with the duties of the nurse in the sick room, the handling of helpless patients and the preparing of their food. The last two lectures of the course will be given on the 20th and 27th of January. As these lectures are open to all members, there should be a good attendance.

A number of the young ladies of the city have formed a committee to provide linen for the new Y. W. C. A. building. It is very gratifying to the ladies of the board to find that those outside the usual workers have taken up this department of the work. The linen will all be marked by the young ladies, and will be a very large item in the furnishing of the new building. It would be gratifying to see others come forward and take up other parts of this important work.

MOTHERS OF CATHEDRAL.

Annual Supper Last Evening—Several Presentations Made.

In Christ's Church Cathedral school room last evening the annual supper of those interested in the mothers' meetings was held, about fifty mothers of the church being present. The mothers were seated around the festive board, which was in the shape of a large horseshoe, and fairly groaned beneath the weight of good things. Mrs. C. Foote, president, was in the chair and Canon Abbott and Mrs. Abbott were guests. The supper started at 6.30, Canon Abbott made a brief speech on the most commendable work of the mothers during the past year, and thanked them heartily on behalf of the church. Mrs. Foote gave a short speech, and Mrs. Manning also spoke. She mentioned gratefully the kindness of the rector and his wife and the officers of the Mothers' Association in helping to make the year's work the success that it was.

The feature of the evening was a presentation of bouquet to the president, Mrs. Foote, and to Mrs. Abbott, and a presentation of a quilt to Miss K. Thompkins. All spoke feelingly in reply. During the evening a recitation was given by Miss K. Thompson and a reading by Mrs. Foley.

The ladies who hold office in this important institution at Christ's Church Cathedral and whose hard work brings about the success it attains every year are Mrs. O'Neil, Miss Ethel Southam, Mrs. McClelland and Miss K. Kennedy. These officers all hold their positions another year.

Vapo-Cresolene
Established 1879

Whooping Cough, Croup, Bronchitis, Cough, Grip, Asthma, Diphtheria

Cresolene is a boon to Asthmatics

Does it not seem more effective to breathe in a remedy to cure disease of the breathing organs than to take the remedy into the stomach? It cures because the air rendered strongly antiseptic is carried over the diseased surface with every breath, giving prolonged and constant treatment. It is invaluable to mothers with small children.

Those of a consumptive tendency find immediate relief from coughs or inflamed conditions of the throat.
