Miss Louisa Teeter commenced her duties as assistant at the Smithville High School on Monday last, in the room of Miss Hill, who went to Hamilton.

Miss Gove has been engaged to take the piace of Miss Teeter as assistant at the Puplic School here.

On Friday afternoon last was witnessed one of the most touching events in the Smithville High School, at the farewell of Miss Hill, the assistant teacher, who for about seven years has put forth her best efforts for the advancement of her pupils, and who was the means of holding the school together under adverse conditions. After recess the school was called together in the lower room, when Mr. Tremeer, the Principal, spoke of the departure of Miss Hill. After this an address to Miss Hill was read by Mr. Leslie Bell, one of the prominent members of the High School. Then was presented to Mist Hill by Miss Nettie Gove, a beautifu pearl sunburst, a slight token from the school of their tender. Every fourth Sunday is devoted to missions, The giving of buttons and certificates was suggested as a means of couraging regular attendance. When the conference was conducted it was asked if it would be considered advisable to give prizes to scholars. This was not approved of, but it was thought best of all to give "a reward of merit."

This would be done by passing examinations on "Home Study Leadlets," which were to be sent to Rev. B. W. Merrill

The Robert Rakes diploma is given by many schools for regular attendance, and also school buttons. Any of these means were considered better than prize giving. The Cheapside male quartette furnished special music and a trio was sung by Misses Laura Dennis, Bertie Atkinson and Winnifred Buckley.

He had recited his story, beginning four years ago, and had reached the start from his son's office to the Governor's mansion. It was during this walk that Carmack was killed. Colonel Cooper appeared collected and almost disinterested. The only time he showed emotion was when coursel were reading the editorials which preceded the killing. Then his already florid face flushed deeply and the scarlet stole up over his bald head, accentuated by the whiteness of his hair.

The defence purposes to-morrow to have Colonel Cooper describe the actual killing.
