

Poetry. 'TIS SWEET WHEN FRIENDS TOGETHER MEET. BY VIRLEY JOHNSON. 'Tis sweet, when friends together meet, Throughout the lapse of years, To speak to each in confidence, Of all our hopes and fears; To vent our sorrows and our joys, To those among them who possess An everlasting ear.

Varieties. OFFICERS IN THE TIME OF GUSTAVUS ADOLPHUS. An officer of rank always hung a gold chain over his gorget; and cavaliers were usually apparelled in the richest stuffs, and wore the most beautiful armour which the forgers of Parma and Milan could produce.

Effects of Parental Education.—The qualities and habits for which he (Washington) was remarkable were precisely those which indicate the power of domestic education, and could not have sprung from any other influence than the ever-watchful eye and untiring attention of affectionate and thoughtful parents.

The End of Folly.—The wife of Michael Calt, a resident of Decker township, in Indiana, was shot on Monday last week, by her son-in-law, a Mr. Young, to whom she approached disguised as an assassin.

Sparkling Eyes.—"Mr. Smith," said a little fellow, the orphan, to his sister's beau, "I wish you would 'nt praise our Ann Maria's eyes any more. You've made her so proud now, that she won't speak to cousin Laura, nor help mother the least bit."

A Lawyer's Toast.—Belonging, as he said, to the profession which had the reputation of being fond of fees, he offered— For simple, and a simple fee, And all the fees in law, are paid, Are nothing when compared to those, That best of fees—fees!

How they used to be.—"My first employment," says La Courtois, in the Mysteries of Paris, "was an assistant in the horse-slaughtering business. I was then but twelve years of age. I plied the poor beast at first, but I soon conquered my repugnance, and my trade became a perfect passion.

BY HIS EXCELLENCY SIR ALEXANDER BANNERMAN, KNIGHT, Lieutenant Governor, and Commander in Chief in and over Her Majesty's Island of Prince Edward, and the Territories thereof, including, Chancellor, Vice Admiral, and Officer-in-Chief of the Navy, &c. &c. &c.

PROCLAMATION. WHEREAS my attention hath been called to a Letter which appeared in the Advocate, Newspaper, of the 28th ultimo, addressed to the Editor thereof offering to the reading public of this Island "the declaration, qualification and obligation," copied (as the letter states) verbatim, from the Laws of the Orange Association of British North America; And whereas I would have considered it unnecessary to notice the letter and documents alluded to, had I not ascertained, that they had been published by the authority of a Member or Members of an Orange Association which it is alleged, has been formed and now exists in Charlotteville, in this Island; and had I not also observed it stated on the same authority, that "the Institution of these Colonies can never be suppressed, but by means which would subvert the Constitution and annihilate the connection with the mother country."
